HUGHES WILL DON SUPREME ERMINE

New York Governor Notifies Taft of Acceptance of Offer on the Nation's Highest Bench.

WILL BE NAMED TODAY.

General Belief Is That New Duties Will Keep Executive Out of Coming Campaign in Empire State.

Washington, D. C., April 25.—President Taft late today received from Gov. Charles E. Hughes of New York a letter accepting the tendered appointment as an associate justice of the Supreme court of the United States.

Five minutes after the letter was handed to the president the nomination of Gov. Hughes was on its way to the senate. That body had adjourned for the day, however, when the news reached the capitol, and so the senate will not hear officially until tomorrow of the resignation of Gov. Hughes to succeed the late Justice David J. Brewer.

While it is expected that Gov. Hughes will be confirmed with little or no delay, it is understood here he will remain as the chief executive of the state of New York until next October, and will not take the oath of his new office until the fall term of the Supreme court opens the second Monday in that month.

May Bar Him from Campaign.

There has been much speculation ever since it was first intimated that Gov. Hughes would be tendered a place on the Supreme bench as to whether or not his appointment would take him out of the fall campaign in the state of New York, where all the Republican leaders admit he is sorely needed. The general impression is that he will take no part in the campaign.

President Taft would not discuss this phase of the case in any way today. He has been anxious to secure the best man he could for the Supreme court vacancy and he feels that he has done so. He was much elated over the outcome of his tender to Gov. Hughes and today said:

"I am delighted to secure Gov. Hughes for the bench. He is a man of wide experience of mature ability, and it is a mighty valuable thing to have on the great bench of the supreme court a man of affairs. Gov. Hughes is 48 years of age, I think, and even though he should retire at 70 he would have had twenty-two years of solid usefulness on the bench."

Acceptance Pleases Capital.

The appointment of Gov. Hughes was received throughout Washington with the greatest satisfaction. The announcement, however, came as something of a surprise, despite the fact that it had been generally understood for days that the position was to be tendered to him.

President Taft had been warned in advance that Gov. Hughes might not be able to accept because his service as governor of the state of New York practically had depleted his small private fortune, and he felt the necessity of again entering the practice of law in order to earn a competence for himself and his family. This did not deter the president, however, and he optimistically pushed a reply.

His first overtures regarding the appointment are said to have been conducted through Senator Root of New York. It was not until Friday last that the president wrote a formal letter offering the place to the governor. That letter was carefully guarded.

Supreme Judges Are "Delighted."

Gov. Hughes deliberated over the matter for a day and yesterday wrote his acceptance. The letter reached the White House this afternoon as the president was preparing to leave. He delayed his departure long enough to see that the nomination was sent to the senate.

The news of the appointment and acceptance of Gov. Hughes reached the justices of the court just as they were adjourning for the day. They were all surprised and pleased.

"I am delighted," said Chief Justice Fuller.

"A fine appointment," said Justice Harlan.

"I am delighted to hear it," declared Justice White.

"Gov. Hughes is a man of high character and great ability," was Justice McKenna's comment.

Justice Lurton smiled; no longer would he be the newest member of the court.

Geographical Balance Restored.

The appointment restores the balance of geographical distribution of the members of the court, which was swung temporarily out of line by the appointment of Justice Lurton of Tennessee to succeed the late Justice Peckham of New York. The situation now is shaped favorably to the appointment of a western man as chief justice should Chief Justice decide to retire from the bench.

It is the universal belief among public men that Solicitor General Lloyd W. Bowers of Chicago is destined for a seat on the supreme bench sooner or later, and it is not at all unlikely that the chief justiceship will be his prize.

New York politicians say the elimination of Hughes means that Roosevelt will run for governor of New York campaign next fall. William Loeb is mentioned as a possible candidate to oppose him in this connection.

Bryan Is Not Enthusiastic.

Lincoln, Neb., April 25.—"The appointment of Gov. Hughes to the Supreme bench will be applauded by many as a popular appointment made by J. Bryan tonight. "He has not put forward as a reformer, but his position as a reformer rests upon a few public acts. No one who will examine his record can doubt that he is in sympathy with the exploiting corporations.

"He signed the bill for the reduction of railroad rates after a New York legislature had passed the reduction bill. He is understood to be a close personal friend of Rockefeller, and the published reports show that the railroad magnates have contributed liberally to his campaign funds.

"He was the first prominent man to oppose the income tax, and his opposition came after Mr. Rockefeller had announced hostility to the income tax amendment. What will he do on the Supreme bench if any cases arise affecting the income tax?

"Mr. Hughes demands honesty in the public service and is a punisher of small crooks, but shows no indignation at the larger crimes of legalized robbery."

SCHOOL ROD UP TO HIGH COURT

Supreme Justices Take Case of Teacher Who Flogged Boy.

ILLINOIS GIRL IN THE SUIT.

Asks Review of Proceedings Heard by Lower Tribunals.

Washington, D. C., April 25.—Is the "tune of the hickory stick" to be given the moral support of the Supreme court of the United States? That is a question it will be called upon to decide between now and vacation days.

If the court gives its approval to this method of discipline, Annie Kelley, an Illinois teacher, will escape from a school squabble with no greater punishment than having been declared a bankrupt. If the court puts its foot down on corporal punishment she probably will have to go to jail for flogging a pupil.

History of the Case.

In 1906 Miss Kelley was teaching in the primary department of the public schools of Tolono, Champaign county, Ill. According to a brief Miss Kelley has just filed in the Supreme court, Michael Burke, 11 years old, was not as good as he could be. In the presence of the school on Dec. 6, 1906, so Miss Kelley tells the court, he "committed a breach of proper decorum by using vulgar and profane language at and toward your petitioner and jerking her upon the floor and striking and kicking her."

After the principal had ordered her to chastise Michael, she flogged him with a pointer. When the Burkes brought a suit for damages against her, alleging trespass and other things, the state courts returned a judgment against Miss Kelley.

Miss Kelley Declared Bankrupt.

After the judgment Miss Kelley was declared a bankrupt. On the ground that the national bankrupt law does not discharge a person from payment of a debt incurred through the committing of "willful and malicious injuries to the person or property of another," Miss Kelley was arrested under an Illinois statute for failure to satisfy the judgment. She went into the federal courts for her discharge.

The district court of the United States for the eastern district of Illinois found that the debt was not incurred through willful and malicious injuries. The Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the judgment. Miss Kelley now has asked the Supreme court to review her case.

CARNEGIE THINKS AMERICA SOME DAY WILL FORCE PEACE.

Declares Time Is Not Far Off When United States Will Make Itself Felt as Champion of Arbitration.

Washington, D. C., April 25.—Andrew Carnegie, addressing the members and guests of the National Press club tonight, declared President Taft one of the greatest presidents this country has had, and said that for his efforts for world peace the country would grant him a high place in history.

"There is nothing to be gained by disarmament of nations," continued Mr. Carnegie. "You must bridge the chasm between peace and war. Germany and England have no right to go on arming themselves and preparing for war. This country has some rights. We won't sit here long, or go on as we are, spending millions for a navy merely for our protection.

"If I were president, I would insist that we be heard and our rights regarded. I would say as Ruler Taft has said: 'You must submit your quarrels to arbitration!' And the day will come when we will have the power to enforce our demands in the direction of securing the peace of the world."

Had he not been prevented by fate, Mr. Carnegie thought possibly he might have owned a large number of newspapers and had the members of the National Press club working for him—"making a lot of you millionaires," he said.

"I have been responsible for forty-two millionaires, I think," said Mr. Carnegie.

DOLLIVER BUMPS TAFT'S RAIL BILL

Iowa Senator Says It Would Give Supreme Power to Two Financiers Who Control Industrials.

ASSAILS WATERED STOCK

Says if He Has to Give Up Seat There Will Be No "Artificial Explanations"; Pays Respects to Wickersham.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., April 25.—[Special.]—In a vigorous attack upon the administration railroad bill, which held the attention of the senate for more than two hours this afternoon, Senator Dolliver of Iowa charged that the enactment of the bill into law in its present form would place the control of the transportation lines and the industries of the United States in the hands of two men.

Senator Dolliver did not specify which captains of industry he meant. His colleagues on the floor exchanged significant glances and decided he referred to Morgan and Rockefeller.

"The railroads of the country," declared Senator Dolliver, "within the last twenty years have passed into the management of the great industrial concerns that have grown up under the protection of the law."

"I stood in the rain with McKinley in a town in Indiana in 1890 and helped him dedicate one of the first tinplate mills established in the United States," he continued. "In the twenty years since then those fellows who stood around us in their overalls and who had laid the brick for that tinplate mill have bought the Rock Island road out of the products of that business—not from manufacturing tinplate, but from manufacturing certificates.

Says Cash Has Been Discounted.

"I have no objection to the man who buys property with money, but we have allowed the industries of the United States to be consolidated without the use of money. We have allowed the industries of the United States to assimilate the transportation systems. To pass this bill in the form in which it is before us would be to put the transportation systems of the country in the hands of two managers of great industrial organizations.

"To invite these men or their agents to parcel out the cities, towns, and villages of the country on a map and say to the industries of America under what terms they would be allowed to exist; to deny to the government the right to step in and stop proceedings with its peremptory order, would be to strike a blow not only at the shipping community, but at the industries which are the life of the country we represent and which we ought to protect."

He also said that while he had a high regard for President Taft, he did not know of anything in the president's training, experience, or legal knowledge "that warrants us in silencing all voices of controversy."

Will Give No "Artificial Reasons."

"I intend to follow the line which seems to me and the people I represent to be right," said the senator, "and to ignore everything except the fitness of things and the merit of the proposition before us. If there ever comes a time when I can't do that, there will be a back seat vacant in the senate and no artificial explanations will be offered as to the reasons for my absence."

Senator Dolliver paid his respects to Attorney General Wickersham and the latter's Chicago speech, but in terms much milder than had been expected. After explaining the Republican platform as he himself interpreted it, the senator said:

"The hand that wrote this original bill did not even pay the Republican platform the poor tribute of a passing notice. The voice that now feels authorized by a little brief authority to purge the Republican party of unworthy members, when this bill was written, either did not know what the Republican platform was or felt at liberty to treat it with that silent inattention which is the characteristic of really great minds."

Senator Dolliver concluded his speech with the remark that when other sections of the bill were taken up he would have more to say.

He was followed on the floor by Senator Root of New York, who defended the portion of the administration bill against which Senator Dolliver had launched his criticisms.

MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION OF LETTER LEADS TO ARREST.

Detectives Who "Piece" Scraps of Paper Find Name That Leads to Capture of Alleged Burglars.

The piecing together of the scraps of an old and nearly faded letter gave detectives a clew which led yesterday to the arrest for burglary of Frank Harris, 617 North Ada street, and Henry Higgins, 943 West Monroe street. The torn fragments of the letter were found in a pile of rubbish in the house of Angelo Tanaccino, 734 West Ohio street, where Lieut. Ambrose and Detectives Winge and McDonald recovered over $5,000 worth of stolen property on April 22.

After piecing the scraps together it was necessary to place them under a magnifying glass before they could be read. The letter revealed only the name of Henry Higgins, but Winge and McDonald finally learned that he was a companion of Harris. The arrest of the two followed.

Harris and Higgins were identified at the West Chicago avenue station by J. Marous, 3035 West Madison street, and David Levy, 1852 West Madison street, from whose tailor shops over $4,000 worth of suitings had been stolen, as two men who had been hanging around their shops the day before the burglary, April 21.

Present Place of Abode to Be Turned Into Hotel—He Has No Other in Sight.

Ald. John J. Coughlin is about to suffer one of the natural hardships of the poet; he is going to lose his place of abode. By Saturday he must vacate apartment No. 8, on the third floor of the Morton apartments, Eighteenth street and Michigan avenue, and he hasn't another place in sight. He has occupied the apartment for ten years, and must move because the place is to be turned into a family hotel.

WOMAN'S JOKE SPLITS SECT

Estelle Hamsley Admits Giving Fake Revelation to Bahaist.

FALSE PROPHET IS FOOLED.

H. C. Thompson Refuses to Believe Zon Zhoum Is a Clever Hoax.

"Zon Zhoum" is a false god and Henry Clayton Thompson is the same sort of a prophet. The name of the god is a fanciful combination of letters made by a woman as she gazed upon a "Zu Zu" advertisement in a street car.

A "commission" making Thompson "herald of the kingdom of God," directing him to lead the race to a "consciousness of realities" and a lot of other places, is but the work of a woman's imagination.

The national convention of Bahaists of America, in assembly at the Masonic temple, has been practically split asunder by Thompson's claims. Now comes the exposure of one of the most ludicrous spiritual frauds of the decade.

Worst of all, is the fact that the false prophet charge is brought by "Estelle," the royal, double distilled high priestess medium who sat up in the night and heard "Zon Zhoum" give out a lot of stuff about making Thompson his lord high representative on earth.

Almost Breaks Up Convention.

Thompson, who lives at 3510 Carroll avenue, almost broke up the national Bahaist convention. He dragged in an American flag yesterday, waving it properly, and announced that he would establish a new cult by authority of Abdul-Baha, the head of the sect.

He based his claim to leadership on a commission from Zon Zhoum, a high priest in Egypt, who brought out Moses, Jesus, and Mohammed—and now Thompson. The commission, he asserted, came by the word of "Estelle, one of the Supreme Concourse."

"Estelle" appeared in the flesh at THE TRIBUNE office last night, and said "Zon" was a fake and the "commissions" to Thompson the work of her imagination. She is Mrs. Estelle M. Hamsley of 3408 Fulton street.

"For the fun of the thing," she said, she had led Thompson to believe he was called by some oriental spiritual mogul to be a savior of mankind, and he had become obsessed with the idea. She tried to disabuse his mind later and confessed her deception, but he refused to believe her.

Tablets Written in Kitchen.

"The tablet commissions I wrote in my kitchen while waiting for the pies to bake," she said. "I hunted up a lot of old oriental books, copied an expression here, another one there, and mixed them up with all the crazy dope I could think of.

"Thompson swallowed it. Once he brought a lot of his friends to my house and we had a Zon Zhoum evening. We put crackers and wine on the table and didn't touch any, so we could practice self-denial. Then somebody spilled the wine over Thompson and he insisted it forecast the spilling of his blood as a martyr. He told me he had discovered that Zon Zhoum was Jehovah.

"The entire Zon Zhoum business is a fraud that I originated for fun. I am not a Bahaist and never was. I did it to show Thompson how easy it is for a believer in occultism to be deluded."

Thompson sought to stem the tide rising against him at the convention, as it was discovered he was the representative of a cracker box god, by branding his assailants as "damnable and rotten seed."

GRANT BIRTHDAY A HOLIDAY?

Western Society of the Army of the Potomac Will Ask Congress to Make It One.

A move to make April 27, the anniversary of the birth of Gen. U. S. Grant a national holiday was taken up last night at the twentieth annual banquet of the Western society of the Army of the Potomac held at the Palmer house. A resolution adopted by the society is to be presented to Congress. Aid will be asked of the Loyal Legion of Honor, and the commander in chief of the G. A. R., former govenor Van Sant of Minnesota. Charles H. Taylor was elected president of the society for the coming year.

WHO'S COMING BACK?

ACCUSED OF KILLING BABIES

Midwives, State Board of Health, and Dairymen Are Blamed.

PLAIN TALK BY PHYSICIANS.

Causes of Infant Mortality Pointed Out at Meeting of Women.

The reform section of the Woman's club held a post mortem yesterday on Chicago's infant mortality and heard the blame placed on milk, midwives, and the state board of health.

Dr. Caroline Hedger asserted that "the state board of health is responsible for the midwives," and advised Miss Chicago to "lay aside the mythical breast plates, her original barnyard hat, the 'I Will' motto, and attend to her babies."

Dr. Rudolph Holmes divided the responsibility for the infant mortality between the midwives and the state board of health.

Ignorant Women as Midwives.

"Many believe the present laws effective if the state board of health possessed the backbone to enforce them," he said. "Through this body Illinois is a public scandal throughout the United States and a portion of Europe.

"A woman's ingenuity is now the criterion in passing examinations for midwives' certificates, and many a candidate who cannot read or write has passed by having another take the Illinois test. I do not doubt that every midwife in Chicago violates the law by performing criminal operations."

"Chicago has the dirtiest milk supply on the American continent, but the most decent in Illinois, and not decent at that," said Health Commissioner Evans.

Puts Blame on Consumers.

"There need not be a drop of bad milk in the city but for the indifference of the persons who buy from dirty dealers," he continued. "So the responsibility comes right back to the consumer."

Prof. Charles R. Henderson of the University of Chicago, in praising the city health department's work, said:

"Let us say to the council, 'You who refuse the health commissioner funds with which to supervise infant hygiene are to blame for the terrible mortality.'"

Dr. Lindsay Wynecoop spoke on "Prevention Through Education," Dr. Effie Davis on "Legitimatising the Child," and Sherman Kingsley, superintendent of the United Charities, on "The Need of a Bureau of Child Hygiene."

WALSH WOULD ACCEPT PARDON.

Convicted Banker Has Nothing to Do with Move to Secure Release, However, Says Warden.

Leavenworth, Kas., April 25.—John R. Walsh, the banker, would accept a pardon from the president if tendered him, but the aged financier has in no way had anything to do with the circulation of a petition for his release. This statement was made tonight by Warden McClaughry of the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, where Mr. Walsh is confined.

"The old man is bent and worn," added the warden, "and since coming here has grown nervous and looks much older. I know he would gladly accept a pardon."

No statement could be obtained from Mr. Walsh.

DEATH FOLLOWS PREMONITION.

Youth Is Killed Soon After He Told His Mother He Feared the End Was Near.

Following a premonition of his death, which found expression in two returns to his door to kiss his mother good-by, Thomas Cummings, 19 years old, of 620 West Forty-fifth street, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon at Armour & Co.'s power house, in the stockyards.

"I feel as though I were not going to see you again, mother," said Cummings as he left his mother for the second time.

He was killed a few hours later by a shock of 11,000 volts of electricity while he was splicing wires in the power house.

New York, April 25.—[Special.]—Miss Marion Stephens, for many years leader in the Christian Science church here, today committed suicide by inhaling gas. She is the one who informed on Mrs. Stetson when the latter was deposed.

INSPECTOR'S WIFE ASKS 'FEE'

Mrs. Daniel Christopher Sues Brick Company for $40,000.

CLAIMS IT AS COMMISSION.

Says W. F. Brennan Was Her Partner, but He Modifies It.

New light was shed on purchase of paving brick by contractors dealing with the city in a previous administration in a suit on trial in the Municipal court yesterday. One interesting disclosure was the argument of the complainant, the wife of a former city brick inspector, that she was promised a share in the commission of all brick sold by one company.

In this case Mrs. Aileen Christopher, wife of Daniel Christopher, the former inspector, is suing the Purington Paving Brick company for $40,000, which she declares is owing to her as unpaid commissions on brick which she caused to be purchased from the company by the city contractors.

Partner of W. F. Brennan.

She asserts that a total commission of $2.50 a thousand on more than 11,000,000 brick sold to contractors dealing with the city from 1904 to 1909 was promised to W. F. Brennan & Co. Brennan, former deputy commissioner of public works, and herself, she said, constituted the firm, and she held a contract whereby she was to share equally with him in the commissions. She says the commissions were paid to Brennan and she was never paid.

D. V. Purington, president of the brick company, asserted during the day that he had never heard of Mrs. Christopher's partnership. Attorney Thomas E. Milchrist, counsel for the company, said in the evening:

"Brennan was our city agent after he had left the office of deputy commissioner of public works. He was allowed such a commission on all brick sold to the city. We never heard that there was any woman in partnership with him, and she can have no claim on the company."

Brennan Tells of Deals.

And this is what Mr. Brennan had to say:

"I was deputy commissioner of public works under Mayor Carter Harrison. In January or February, 1904, Christopher came to me and said there was good money in promoting a brick company and wanted me to take the matter up with him. As Mayor Harrison was not going to be a candidate again, I resigned on Feb. 28. I signed a contract as city agent for the C. C. Barr, the Metropolitan, and Purington Paving Brick companies on March 1.

"The contract was made out to W. F. Brennan & Co., There wasn't exactly a company, but I had a partner in Mrs. Christopher. The brick inspector said he did not want to be a member of the company, but desired his wife to be. The matter was arranged that way. Christopher picked out the companies for which I was to become agent. He declared and correctly, that only they could supply brick that would pass the severe tests the city demanded.

"As Christopher had said only the brick of these three companies passed muster, and their output was used on city work to the exclusion of the brick of all other companies.

"The brick was not sold directly to the city, but to the contractors who did work for the city. It was so arranged that the three companies all were given their share of the patronage.

Mrs. Christopher a Figurehead?

"Well, in 1905 I branched out into the contracting business, and I didn't want to handle the brick business any longer, although we made money at it. In October, I believe it was, we quit partnership. I took the commissions that were due from the Barr company and Christopher was paid some $4,500 owing from the Purington company. It was Christopher with whom I did all the business. His wife was only a figurehead."

Christopher and his wife now live in Wisconsin, where he is in the contracting business. He was discharged as a city inspector of brick Jan. 1, 1909.

"Christopher was discharged for no specific reason," John Minwegen of the board of local improvements said at night. "Except that he insisted on buying all the paving brick for the city from two concerns, the Purington Brick company and the Metropolitan Brick company. On his refusal to purchase from other concerns he was discharged. He refused to surrender a scale and other property belonging to the city, and charges were preferred against him."

CAR AND AUTOMOBILE CRASH; FOUR PERSONS ARE INJURED.

Police Decide Slippery Condition of the Street Made Accident Unavoidable and Make No Arrests.

In a collision between an automobile and a street car at Center street and Sheffield avenue last night, four out of six occupants of the automobile were injured, two of them seriously. The injured are:

ABEL, LOUIS, 45 years old, wholesale liquor dealer residing at La Grange; three slight scalp wounds.

GLEMKE, JAMES, 24 years old, expressman, 1839 Hastings street; laceration over right eye.

SULLIVAN, TIMOTHY, 45 years old, employed at the Union station; cut on face by glass.

TONNEMANN, RICHARD, 36 years old, saloonkeeper, 1300 South Ashland avenue; two ribs cracked and left shoulder dislocated.

Dell Davis, chauffeur, 1008 West Monroe street, and E. A. Stege, vice president of the E. R. Stege Brewing company, 1443 South Ashland avenue, the sixth occupant of the automobile, were shaken severely, but unburt.

The automobile is the property of the Rowe Auto station, California avenue and Lake street. The street car was in charge of Conductor Burgett and Motorman Mennshausen. Both the car crew and the chauffeur claimed to have signaled before reaching the crossing. The police ascribed the slippery condition of the street as the chief cause of the accident. No arrests were made.

SELTZER SPRAY AIDS HOLDUP.

Bartender Dazes Customer While Another Robs Him—Police Seek to Revoke License.

The spray from a seltzer water bottle in the hands of Walter Simmons, the bartender, aided in the holdup of Oscar Larson in the saloon of Matthew Wernegaris, 1401 Grand avenue. While dazed $20 was taken from Larson's pocket by Thomas Burke, 1615 Grand avenue. Both men were arrested and the police will ask for the revocation of the saloon's license.

Inquisitors Expected to Vote Indictments for Money Collected on Fuel Never Delivered.

INSIDER TO AID STATE?

State's Attorney Boring for Shale Along the McGovern Sewer; Tunnel Investigation Goes On.

Charge after charge of fraud in the purchase of coal for the city fire department was laid before the grand jury yesterday. Running through the evidence submitted and reappearing at many angles of the case was the name of one man.

At the close of the four hour session at 6 o'clock in the evening the statement was in the air in the Criminal court building that at least one indictment would be voted and possibly several others, before the jurors finish their task.

The city coal purchases under scrutiny were bought largely from James P. Connery.

State's Attorney Wayman, it developed, has been preparing a surprise in the McGovern tunnel cases by instituting a search for shale rock evidence. He started engineers sinking shafts parallel to the Lawrence avenue sewer to determine if shale was likely to have been encountered in the excavation, as alleged by McGovern and city employés indicted with him. The investigation of section N of the tunnel went on. Assistant State's Attorney Northup stating at the close of the day that he had gathered further evidence of "skimping" which in places amounted to one-half.

Coal Graft Confession Coming?

Mr. Wayman himself, although absent from his office all day, was working on the coal graft case, it was said. He was reported to be in communication with one of the men named prominently in the scandal, and this person, it was said, was likely to turn state's witness.

Three alleged coal frauds, in which the city is said to have paid for fuel it never received through the use of forged tickets, centered the grand jury's attention as follows:

Charge No. 1 covered eight non-deliveries last September, when, on alleged altered tickets, the city paid a second time for 82,000 pounds of coal it had received the preceding months.

Charge No. 2 was that, by similar device, payment had been collected twice for a 40,000 pound delivery.

Charge No. 3 was that a ticket for a delivery of 92,000 pounds had been "raised" to 292,000 pounds and the city mulcted for the additional 200,000 pounds.

In these cases Connery was paid.

The principal witness was Herbert E. Fleming, investigator for the Merriam commission. He described the city's checking system, which excited astonishment among the jurors, who questioned freely. Also, he showed the invoices and vouchers.

Says Coal Wasn't Delivered.

Capt. P. J. Nolan of the fireboat Joseph Medill testified he did not receive the coal charged to him. Other witnesses were Joseph Donohue, audit clerk of the fire department, whose system of "checking up" permitted the alleged frauds, and W. A. Hart, an attorney and Merriam investigator. Fire Chief James Horan was present before the probe started, but did not testify.

Substitution of Illinois and Indiana cheap block coal for the $4 a ton "West Virginia splint" specified in the fire department contracts is said to be covered by the evidence. It is known that cars have been traced from the mines.

The inquiry was limited to coal transactions of the last eighteen months to escape the statute of limitations on conspiracy charges. This eliminated accusations that the Miami Coal company in 1908 had collected for 791,000 pounds it had never delivered.

"The evidence today, so far as it goes, made out a strong case," said Assistant State's Attorney Victor P. Arnold, who had charge of the presentation in the grand jury room and who did most of the questioning of witnesses.

Indictments Will Be Ready.

Assistant State's Attorney Thomas Marshall, in commenting on rumors that five indictments had been drawn as a result of the review of testimony in the morning conferences with Merriam investigators, said none had been prepared, but would be ready when needed.

"After the Merriam commission evidence is all in," added Mr. Marshall, "we shall introduce evidence of our own gathered in an independent inquiry. We were not ready to spring it, but circumstances have made it necessary and we will do the best we can. In some respects it overlaps the Merriam disclosures."

Today's witnesses will include Fire Lieutenant William Dillon, John E. Haberle, and Patrick Conneen, Clerks E. J. Miller and Joseph Harvey from the city controller's office, Merriam Investigators K. Ashbury and Charles Carpenter, and Capt. Patrick Lyons of the fireboat Graeme Stewart.

State's Attorney Wayman issued a statement in which he scored the Merriam commission for making public its evidence indicating criminality, but he promised to prosecute the cases vigorously.

Progress of Section N Inquiry.

Inspection of section N of the sewer intake practically was finished, although Mr. Northrup and his engineers will make tests today of the concrete bases of the brick walls, the walls and the arch roof of the tunnel.

The latest findings corroborated the assertion made before in the state's attorney's office, that the concrete flooring is only a shell and in no instance was it found of a thickness called for in the specifications. The thickness ranged from 7½ inches to 11 inches. Tests taken during the day gave the following: 9½ inches, 8 inches, 8½ inches, 8 inches, 9⅝ inches, 10 inches, 11 inches, and 9½ inches.

Blocks of the concrete flooring from 8 to 10 inches wide and 12 to 14 inches long are being taken out of the tunnel for evidence at the trial.

"We have found more than enough evidence to prove that there was 'skimping' in the materials," said Mr. Northup.

SOCIALISTS TAKE PLUMS IN COUNCIL

Every Committee but One in Milwaukee Body Is Given to Party Man.

WILL FORCE THEIR PLANS

Are Determined to Redeem Campaign Pledges of Widespread Reforms.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 25.—[Special.]—The Socialists gave evidence tonight that they will run the city of Milwaukee absolutely during their administration of its affairs. The revelation came when President E. T. Melms announced the appointments of chairman and vice chairmen of the various council committees.

There are twenty standing committees in the council and three special committees. One of these committees has a chairman still who is not a Socialist, but every other one is headed by a Socialist and has another Socialist as vice-chairman.

Democrat Gets Old Job.

Ald. Frederick Bogk, a Democrat, is retained as chairman of the special committee on harbors. This committee will have charge of the important work of carrying through the plans for a $7,000,000 inner and outer harbor, with municipal docks, warehouses, and belt line of railroad.

In explanation of the appointment of Socialists to the other committee chairmanships, the administration points to the pledges made during the campaign. The leaders of the Socialists say they are determined to carry out these pledges and that the only way in which they can make progress is by having the power in the council absolutely in their own hands.

Many Reforms Introduced.

The meeting was marked by the introduction of numerous resolutions and ordinances which the Socialist administration deems necessary to fulfill party pledges during the ensuing two years in Milwaukee.

The most important measures have for their object home rule; improved housing conditions; creation of a bureau of municipal research; preference for union labor on all bridge work; acquisition of a municipal coal and wood yard; adoption of state laws enabling the removal of city employés for just cause; use of public school buildings for dances; amalgamation of a number of city offices for financial reasons; creation of public comfort stations, and use of city automobiles for strictly municipal purposes.

CALLS A SPECIAL ELECTION.

Governor Makes Provision for Filling Places on Bench Caused by Resignations of McEwen and Carpenter.

Gov. Deneen yesterday called a special election for Tuesday, Nov. 8, for the election of successors to Judge W. M. McEwen and Judge George A. Carpenter of Chicago. Judge McEwen resigned several weeks ago from the Superior bench. Judge Carpenter resigned from the Circuit court of Cook county to ascend the federal bench. The governor received the resignation of Representative Anton J. Cermak, who gives up his place in the Illinois house because he was elected to the city council.

HOLDS LIQUOR VOTE IS ILLEGAL

Illinois Court Decides That Printing of Proposition on Separate Piece of Paper Makes It Invalid.

Springfield, Ill., April 25.—[Special.]—Judge Henshaw at Carrollton today decided the vote on the saloon issue in Bluffdale township on April 5 was illegal, for the reason the proposition was printed on a separate piece of paper and did not appear on the regular ballot. This leaves Greene county saloonless for a period of two years. The wets were declared winner by 5 votes by the count of the judges.

ROCKFORD TO BE 'ANTI-TREAT.'

Municipal Saloon Idea Is Killed, but New Ordinance Will Curb Conviviality.

Rockford, Ill., April 25.—[Special.]—The report of the special committee recommending a municipal saloon was tabled by the city council tonight by a vote of 8 to 7. The new saloon ordinance, to be passed next week, forbids treating.

BALK AT CENSUS QUIZ; 3 HELD.

Warrants Secured for Springfield Men and Woman Who Refuse to Answer Questions.

Springfield, Ill., April 25.—[Special.]—Two men and one woman were held today to answer in the United States District court for refusal to answer questions of the census enumerators. Warrants were called for after Census Supervisor W. J. Butler had secured instructions from Washington.

DOCTOR DIES FOR CHARITY.

Milwaukee Physician Is Infected While Operating on Penniless Sufferer.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 25.—[Special.]—Dr. James S. O'Brien, one of the oldest and best known physicians of the city, gave his life for the sake of a charity patient today. He died shortly after midnight as the result of an operation performed for a poor patient, by which he became infected with blood poisoning.

SLAYS HIS COUSIN IN CHURCH.

Missourian Shot and Killed Because of His Attentions to Young School Teacher.

Portageville, Mo., April 25.—[Special.]—James C. Young was shot and killed by his James C. Young, director of the public schools, was shot and killed by his cousin, Welton Riehburg, in the Methodist church last night. The trouble arose over Young's attentions to Miss Ginda Swilley, a 20 year old school teacher, sister-in-law of Riehburg.

TAGGART SCORES ON ENEMY

Move for Direct Primary on Senator Gives Him Advantage.

PLAN MAY BE ADOPTED.

Indiana Democratic Convention Will Be Scene of Fight.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 25.—[Special.]—By springing a movement for a direct primary to select a candidate for the United States senate, Tom Taggart has handicapped those planning to eliminate him from politics in the Democratic state convention, opening Wednesday.

Taggart's suggestion stands a good chance of being adopted by the convention as a compromise.

"I am in earnest about desiring a statewide primary," said Taggart, "and I feel sure the convention will decide on that method."

Lamb Leads in Attack.

All of the guns of the opposition, led by John E. Lamb of Terre Haute, himself a candidate, were turned on Taggart in an effort to riddle his program. One of Lamb's emissaries called on Gov. Marshall and talked with him. He reported that the governor would stand by his original proposition to have the convention select a candidate.

"But did the governor tell you that he intends to oppose having the senatorial candidate named in a direct primary," he was asked.

"No, he did not," was the reply.

No Opposition by Marshall.

One of the governor's closest political friends asserted positively that the governor will not oppose the plan to have the senatorial candidate selected by a direct primary.

It was said tonight that Taggart and others advocating the direct primary have been assured of enough votes to put it through, but his opponents are using all sorts of arguments against the primary. It was pointed out that it would be an "awful" burden of expense to the candidates, and that a primary would give the machine a good chance to manipulate the situation in favor of Taggart or any other candidate it might choose to back.

JAILBREAK FAILS; TWO KILLED.

Five Convicts Battle with Colorado Warden and Guards and All Are Shot Down by Officers.

Cañon City, Colo., April 25.—Two convicts were killed and three others probably fatally wounded while attempting to escape from the state penitentiary tonight. The battle took place in the corridor of the cellhouse. The five convicts had escaped from their cells and were preparing to dynamite their way to the yard when met by Warden Tynan and his guards. One convict, armed with a revolver, opened fire, while the others fought to overcome the officers, who shot down one after the other.

FEDERAL INQUIRY STIRS GRAIN MEN

Hostility to Call Rule Develops, Following Disclosure of Government Plans.

DEALER SEES INJUSTICE.

J. S. Templeton Says System Is in Restraint of Trade and Hurts City.

Bulls and bears on the Chicago board of trade were thrown into an entirely new alignment yesterday by the announcement in THE TRIBUNE of the line which the federal investigation of the exchange is to take. The burning question on the board is:

"Are you in favor of or against the call rule?"

Most of the opponents of the rule were loath to speak for publication, but one of the cash grain men, J. S. Templeton, said:

"If ever there was a combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade it is to be found in the call rule. The Chicago board of trade absolutely eliminates all competition between its members except for a few hours a day.

Reduces All to One Level.

"It discourages initiative and reduces all to a dead level of mediocrity. It places a premium on laziness and assures the man, who wishes simply to float with the tide, that he may go out and play golf all afternoon without danger of being disturbed. It is like the labor trust which says just how many bricks a man may lay in a day.

"Some complaint is made that under the old system men worked all afternoon and into the evening. Why shouldn't they? It meant free competition with the best man winning.

"Suppose a miller comes to me in the afternoon and offers me a certain price for several cars of a certain grade of wheat. The wheat is for sale out in the country at a fair margin below the price offered. But the most I can bid for it is the price set by the call. That price has been wired to all the big markets of the country, and they have had an opportunity to cut us out by offering a shade higher price. But I am helpless to compete because of this rule.

In Restraint of Trade.

"It is unquestionably in restraint of trade. It means that the farmer has no competition for his wheat if he sends it to Chicago. He must take the price fixed. No one can raise it, no matter how small the supply and how large the demand. On the other hand, if the price is too high for the demand he cannot get rid of his wheat, because no one will pay the call price and no one is permitted to pay less."

While Lawrence Mayhorn of Ohiopyle, Pa., is preparing to hasten to Chicago to claim a $50,000 reward, efforts to locate John A. Sterile, his benefactor, proved unavailing yesterday.

An advertisement sent to a Pittsburg paper urges Mayhorn to come and be rewarded for saving Sterile from being killed by an Italian on Labor day eight years ago.

Sterile gives his address as 197 East Sixty-sixth street. There is no such address, and his name does not appear in the city directory.

Relative of Patient Who Escaped from Hospital Says She Had Threatened Suicide.

Miss Julia Berndt of 465 Deming place, while mentally deranged, escaped from Henrotin hospital at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. Her relatives fear she has ended her life in the lake. Attorney Richard J. Cooney, her brother-in-law, informed the police that she had been mentally distressed for some time and that he sent her to the hospital at 2 o'clock last Tuesday morning after she had threatened to drown herself. When she escaped she was clad in a kimono, a long gray coat, and a pair of felt slippers. No one saw her leave the hospital.

PRISONER OUT; JUDGE AMAZED.

Baldwin Meets Man He Sentenced for Shooting and Supposed Was Still in Jail.

Judge Jesse A. Baldwin was amazed yesterday when he met former Policeman James Tynan on a downtown corner. The jurist had sentenced Tynan to the house of correction and to pay a $1,000 fine for shooting Pong Wing. He had overruled a motion for a new trial and supposed the defendant was serving his sentence. Assistant State's Attorney Day was also surprised. Investigation disclosed that Judge Jesse Holdom of the Appellate court had granted a supersedeas on the application of Louis Greenberg, former constable.

Says He Saw Woman Kill Constable.

Adolph Blunsek, a witness for the prosecution, testified yesterday that he saw Mrs. Blanche Baker shoot and kill Constable Joseph Slais on March 1, 1906, at the threshold of her house. The defense will try to introduce testimony that Slais displayed a revolver, and Mrs. Baker shot him because she believed she was about to be killed.

END BUTTER WAR; FIGHT BILL

Elgin District Producers and Retailers Agree on 29 Cents.

OPPOSE COLD STORAGE LAW.

C. H. Potter Tells Members Lorimer Will Aid in Battle.

The producers and dealers of the Elgin butter district struck a truce yesterday at the weekly meeting of the Elgin board of trade and the price of butter was fixed at 29 cents a pound without opposition from the Chicago members of the board. The South Water street contingent said nothing about their pet contention of changing the quotation from a weekly price to a day to day price.

The new price is 3 cents lower than that of last week, but 3 cents higher than the price that prevailed a year ago.

Join in Fight on Lodge Bill.

The producers and the dealers got together to fight the Lodge bill in congress, which provides that no butter shall be kept in cold storage more than a year and that all goods put into storage shall be plainly marked with the date of their entrance.

C. H. Potter addressed the members of the board on the storage bill and reported that he had conferred with Senator Lorimer, who, he said, had promised to oppose the bill.

Explains Work to Sims.

Mr. Potter also reported that he had visited United States District Attorney Sims and explained to him the nature of the work carried on by the Elgin board of trade. He had endeavored, he said, to make it clear that the board was not an unlawful body.

The board voted to send S. B. Schilling of Chicago and another member of the board to Washington to lobby against the Lodge bill.

CALLED AN EXPERT SWINDLER.

Charles Moran, Arrested Here, Said to Have Made Nearly a Million in Get Rich Quick Schemes.

Charles Moran, arrested here Saturday by Postoffice inspectors, will have a hearing this morning before Commissioner Foote. He is under indictment in Philadelphia, where he operated a bucket shop. He is said to have operated numerous get rich quick schemes, in which it is estimated that he has made nearly $1,000,000. All of this he has spent. He is wanted in Providence, R. I., and New York, as well as Philadelphia, as a result of his operations.

"Cherry Circle" Breaks Record.

The Chicago Athletic association is twenty years old this month and in commemoration of the occasion The Cherry Circle, the monthly magazine of the organization, appears in enlarged form. The anniversary number, just issued to over 3,000 resident and nonresident members, contains 212 pages and is the most elaborate issue ever turned out by the Michigan avenue organization.

THEATER UPLIFT CAMPAIGN IS ON

Drama League of America Is Formed Through Efforts of Women's Club Members.

WILL AID WORTHY PLAYS

Organization to Try to Make Giving of Bad Performances Unprofitable.

Uplift of the theater through organized attendance on good plays and nonsupport of bad ones is the purpose of the "Drama League of America," which came into existence yesterday at a conference of representatives of women's clubs in the Art institute. The idea originated with the Evanston Drama club, which called the conference.

"We do not propose to fritter away our energy by striving to lengthen the skirts of the chorus girls," said one of the promoters. "Once a bad play comes to town we hope, through organization, to keep people away from it."

Officers of Drama League.

Officers of the league are:

President—Mrs. A. Starr Best, Evanston Dramatic club.

Vice presidents—Mrs. Henry L. Frank, Chicago Woman's club; Dr. Richard Burton, University of Minnesota; Mrs. E. P. Sherry, Drama league of Wisconsin; Dr. William N. Guthrie, Tennessee; Mrs. Otis Skinner, New York; Louis K. Anspacher.

Secretary—Mrs. Frances S. Potter.

Treasurer—Charles L. Hutchinson.

A public meeting under the auspices of the league will be held in Lyric theater on the afternoon of May 8. Seats will be sold and the proceeds devoted to publicity expenses of the new organization.

Speakers to Discuss Theater.

Louis K. Anspacher of Columbia university will talk about "An Organized Audience;" Percy Mackaye, Winthrop Ames, manager of the New theater, New York; Eugene Walter, and Thomas W. Ross will make short addresses.

"An initial move connected with the purpose of the new organization looks to support of the New Theater company when it comes to Chicago next month," said Mrs. J. W. Meeker Jr., one of the directors of the league. "We plan to have performances attended by one club and then by another, representatives of which became charter members of the league and the organization sessions today."

JULIUS MOYSE, BIGAMIST, IS CAPTURED IN OMAHA.

Man Who, Under Alias, Married Miss Florence Bamberger, Taken to Kansas City to Answer Forgery Charges.

Julius ["Buck"] Moyse of Greenville, Miss., who, on Oct. 11, as Harry Vincent Kavanagh, married Miss Florence Helen Bamberger, daughter of Prof. Gabriel Bamberger of Chicago, was captured yesterday at Omaha and at once extradited by Kansas City authorities. As the federal postal service also wants him, there appears slim chance of his being tried in Chicago for bigamy, forgery, and other crimes for which he was indicted by the grand jury in January.

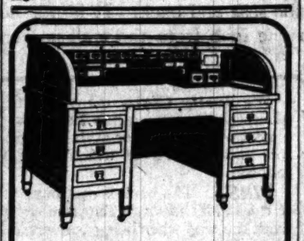

Miss Bamberger's petition for the annulment of her marriage to Kavanagh, or Moyse, is to be heard in a fortnight, based on the discovery that he had married Miss Dollie Morris of Jacksonville, Tex., in November, 1908.

Moyse, as far as his record has been unearthed, has married more than twenty women in various parts of the country, under various aliases, in every case robbing and abandoning his victim or being exposed and forced to flee.

DOROTHY DUNNE IS WEAKER.

Death of Former Mayor's Daughter Now Thought Only a Few Hours Away.

In spite of all efforts to save her life, and in spite of many periods of apparent improvement, Dorothy Dunne, daughter of former Mayor E. F. Dunne, has become so weakened by months of pain, delirium, and inability to take nourishment that it was feared last night that she could not live until morning.

An Honest Druggist

No. 1 No. 1

IS THE NOBLEST WORK OF GOD—

"And about the scarcest," audibly exclaimed old Doctor Jones at a recent banquet in Chicago of 1,150 "substituting" druggists, loudly proclaimed as costing over $17,500!

THIS SERIES OF 50 ADS

(perhaps 100, as the subject is almost exhaustless)

Will endeavor to show the public of Chicago what kind of a confidence game they are up against in the drug line—limited, of course, by the quite natural disinclination of a powerful and darned independent journal to be harassed by possible libel suits on account of the other fellow! We (E. D. Co.) will welcome such suits and will agree to disprove that asinine legal "maxim" that "the greater the truth the greater the libel."

Some d—d fool enunciated the alleged axiom that "a knock is a boost." Never was there a greater fallacy, as it is generally applied by timid competitors in business! If you catch a thief robbing your house and "knock" him on the head, you'll probably "boost" him into the penitentiary, where he belongs! But if you catch a druggist substituting and swindling and robbing, and dare mention the fact in an impolite manner, you "boost" his business!—oh, yes, you do! People like to trade where they are swindled, just out of sympathy for the dear swindler who has been exposed! (N. B.—This is sarcastic.)

This will do for No. 1.

"To be continued in our next." E. O. D. t. f.†

A "Roadster"
in every sense of the word,—
not a compromise

Formerly, a roadster or runabout was a modification of a touring car with the tonneau removed. The Oldsmobile Special, however, was designed as a type by itself to supply the demand for a fast, powerful, two-passenger car of attractive appearance.

Oldsmobile
SPECIAL
ROADSTER

The gasoline tank at the rear, with its unusual capacity, the great surplus of power in the motor and the 36-in. tires give the Special roadster a very wide touring radius over any kind of road surface. Behind the tank there is provision for trunk or hand baggage.

With its long hood, which the 118-inch wheel base makes possible, its drop frame and smart, swinging lines, the roadster makes an appeal to the artistic as well as the mechanical point of view.

The six-cylinder Limited is also made with roadster body.

EDUCATORS ASK PRISON REFORM

Tell Hamilton Club Members State Should Give Convict's Earnings to His Family.

WANT ADULT PROBATION.

Agricultural Colonies for Prisoners Another Innovation Suggested.

Payment by the state of a prisoner's earnings to his family, a probation system for men awaiting trial, and penal agricultural colonies were some of the things advocated yesterday by Dr. Charles R. Henderson of the University of Chicago in a speech before the Hamilton club. Dr. Henderson is chairman of the International Prison Reform association.

"Under the present system," he said, "the worst penalty is inflicted on the families of prisoners. A man serving a sentence has not rid himself of a single obligation to maintain his family."

Dr. F. Emory Lyon of Central Howard association supported Dr. Henderson's assertions and declared that W. D. Howells spoke the truth when he said "the state sets the prisoner a thief's example by stealing his earnings."

DIVORCE AND ALIENATION SUITS INVOLVE 2 CHICAGO FAMILIES.

H. P. McWilliams Sued by Wife and A. O. Einstein, Who Also Wants $25,000—Latter Granted a Decree.

Harry P. McWilliams, connected with the American Bridge company, his wife, Arthur O. Einstein, and his former spouse are involved in a triangular litigation in the Circuit and Superior courts. McWilliams is a grandson of David McWilliams, banker, of Livingston, Ill.

On June 18, 1909, Mrs. McWilliams filed a bill for separate maintenance, charging cruelty and infidelity. Her husband was ordered to pay $50 a month temporary alimony. On March 19 last Mr. Einstein was granted a divorce by Judge Brentano on grounds of infidelity, and on April 4 he filed a suit for $25,000 damages against McWilliams in the Circuit court, charging the latter with alienating his wife's affections.

Ten days later Mrs. McWilliams filed a supplemental bill against her husband, naming Mr. Einstein's former wife. All three suits were suppressed until yesterday.

Harry A. Leonard, real estate dealer, is defendant in a suit for divorce. His wife charges cruelty and infidelity and names Mrs. Florence Ferguson, divorced wife of Lawrence W. Ferguson, of the coal firm of L. W. Ferguson & Co. The suit was threatened several weeks ago.

I. C. EVIDENCE READY FOR JURY.

Harahan Satisfied Details Can Be Prepared for Presentation to Wayman This Week.

The evidence gathered by the Burns detective agency in the Illinois Central car repair graft inquiry is now complete, with the exception of a few details, and is expected to be ready for submission to State's Attorney Wayman this week. President Harahan is satisfied that the remaining details can be secured. Blewett Lee, general solicitor of the road, held a long conference during the day with Detective W. J. Burns.

No confirmation of the report that additional confessions had been made was obtainable at the offices of the railroad, although it is understood several persons implicated in the alleged plot to defraud the company have made full statements to President Harahan and the detectives.

GIVES UP PUMPING STATION.

City Turns Thirty-ninth Street Works Over to the Sanitary District.

Chicago turned the Thirty-ninth street pumping station, which cost $1,000,000 and supplies water for "Bubbly creek," in the stockyards district, over to the Sanitary district yesterday. This carries out a contract made ten years ago, but lost to official recollection until recently. President R. R. McCormick of the Sanitary district said the city's annual expenditure of $150,000 in operating the plant was unnecessarily high. Through acquirement of the station more water will be pumped, thus reducing the offensive odors of the "creek."

Retirement Marks Reorganization of Accounting Department.

A complete reorganization of the accounting department of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was announced yesterday following the resignation of Marshall M. Kirkman as vice president in charge of accounts. Mr. Kirkman will retire on May 1 under the pension system of the company at the age of 68 years and after a consecutive service with the railroad of fifty-four years.

"I have earned a rest," he said in the evening, "and the only reason for my retirement is that I want more liberty."

Veteran Auditor to Retire.

Mr. Kirkman's retirement marks the inauguration of a younger generation in charge of the Northwestern's books and securities, as at the same time Joseph B. Redfield will retire as auditor, assistant secretary, and assistant treasurer and will be assigned to special duties. He has held the same positions ever since the construction of the road in 1849, and has never missed a day because of illness. Mr. Redfield is 84 years of age.

The duties of Mr. Kirkman's office will be assumed, with the title of controller, by Lewis A. Robinson, who since 1897 has been controller of the Northwester ssubsidiary company, the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railway at St. Paul.

Other Changes in Department.

The other changes in the department are as follows: Charles L. Lowe is appointed assistant secretary and assistant treasurer, in place of Mr. Redfield; Charles D. Brandriff is appointed general auditor; Arthur B. Jones is appointed local treasurer, and Harry L. Armstrong is appointed assistant local treasurer.

Mr. Kirkman's resignation was accepted at a meeting of the directors in New York last week.

The Smyth Bed Davenport ($73.75)

finally solves the problem of making a Davenport as comfortable for sleeping purposes as a regulation open bed and at the same time retaining no features suggestive of the ordinary Bed Davenport. This is accomplished by having the springs and mattress absolutely separate and independent of the seat and back. It is not necessary to remove the Davenport even one inch from the wall to convert it into a bed.

In Exploiting This Bed Davenport

we have made every possible effort to maintain superb quality in construction, finish and workmanship which, in every detail, embodies never-ending care and attention and which every piece of upholstered furniture has received during the 43 years of the John M. Smyth Co. upholstering shops.

We Justly Claim many points of superiority for our new Bed Davenport over any other style heretofore in use, a few of which are as follows:

FIRST. The back is stationary, it does not have to be removed from the wall when being converted into a bed.

SECOND. Unlike other Bed Davenports, when not being used as a bed it possesses the style and outlines of the ordinary straight Davenport.

THIRD. While in use as a bed the occupant sleeps on a real mattress, not on the hard upholstered tufts as is the case with other Bed Davenports.

FOURTH. It is the only Davenport Bed that equally divides the merits of the bed and the Davenport, inasmuch as it is a comfortable and real bed when used for that purpose, and at other times a stylish Davenport, not even faintly suggesting its double purpose. The springs and mattress of the bed have nothing to do with the upholstering of seat and back.

WE now have on display over twenty different styles of frames ranging in price to $200— with an unlimited range of covering selections.

(As it appears with its occupants enjoying sleep)

The Operating Principle and Mechanism

is the invention of Mr. John Strand, an expert upholsterer employed in our mammoth shop for the past 20 years. He exercises direct personal supervision over the construction of every bed, hence disorder or complications in the workings of the mechanism are rendered absolutely impossible. Frame is rigidly put together with bolts having thumb nuts, so Davenport may be taken apart and set up again without the aid of tools.

Genuine quarter-sawed oak or mahogany finished. Price, complete with mattress, $73.75

(This Bed as it appears when half turned)

FROST HITS SOUTH; COTTON CROP HURT

Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia Planters Suffer Loss.

ARE SHORT OF NEW SEED.

Reports from Fruit Belt of Central West Give Some Hope for the Growers.

New Orleans, La., April 25.—[Special.]—Thousands of acres of cotton were damaged severely by the cold of last night that they will have to be replanted. The frost ranged over most of Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia, northern and central Alabama, and eastern Tennessee. More cold weather is reported tonight and it is feared frost may be felt even in the northern part of Florida.

It is impossible to form an exact estimate of the damage to the coming cotton crop, but the frost has had a decided effect on the market. Planters from the interior of the cotton belt were present in large numbers on the cotton exchange and bought heavily of options on the new crop, which opened at an advance of 34 points over Saturday's closing. Everywhere there was indication of a marked belief that the crop would be woefully short as a result of the storm.

Cotton Planters Shy of Seed.

Snowstorms raged over much of the frost region territory. From Alabama came the report that only warm enough weather for the night would save the cotton above ground. The planters whose crops have been destroyed are facing another danger of loss in the scarcity of seed to replace that which has been destroyed.

The cold here broke all records for this time in April. The thermometer registered 20 degrees lower than at any time within the history of the weather bureau at this period. Snow was general and ice formed at many points. In addition to the loss to cotton, sugar cane and garden truck suffered severely.

Reports from Atlanta, Louisville, and Nashville show that similar conditions prevail there. The fruit crop suffered less than any other, as the fruits and berries had made such headway that they were strong enough to withstand the cold.

COLD AND STORMS CONTINUE.

Snow laden gales, high seas, and low temperature continued yesterday to work devastation on the great lakes, to fruits and vegetables and grains in the central west. In Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Michigan the thermometer went to freezing and in many instances much below it.

Little hope for relief was held out by the government forecasters, who predicted freezing weather for all points affected last night and this morning.

Reports from the Chicago markets, who had hastened into the country to investigate the damages to crops, reported that the reports had been exaggerated to a certain extent, and that the crops of apples, pears, plums, peaches, and cherries in nearby states might be saved in part.

The condition of the lake was such that even steamers that started out were forced to return, and those that reached port were long delayed and reported terrible battles with waves and winds. It was found impossible to attempt the rescue of the Iowa, which is stranded near Racine.

"Shoestring Carrie" Dead.

Nora Sampson, 942 West Randolph street, known as "Shoestring Carrie," died at the county hospital yesterday. She was run over by a horse driven at Morgan and West Lake streets. For years she had been a vender on west side streets.

HONOR BISHOP AT JUBILEE

Many Attend the Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Cheney's Anniversary.

LONG TIME FRIENDS THERE.

Three Women Present Were at Wedding 50 Years Ago.

The golden jubilee of the marriage of the Rt. Rev. Bishop and Mrs. Charles Edward Cheney was attended by 500 friends of the churchman and his wife last night at Trinity Reformed Episcopal church, Twenty-fourth street and Michigan avenue.

Among the gifts of the evening was a photograph of the late Charles D. Kelly, who was in charge of the mission —now Trinity—before Mr. Cheney came. The photograph was presented by Mrs. Mary F. Clift. Another gift was a testimonial by the Sigma Phi alumni, of which the bishop is a member.

A feature of the celebration was the presence of three women who were present fifty years ago when the young rector and his wife were married in old Trinity church in Madison street near Clark. Those who were guests at the wedding included Mrs. Francis Harris Clift, Mrs. Margaret Hoodless Moore, and Mrs. E. J. B. Squires.

Bishop and Mrs. Cheney were preceded into the reception room last night by four flower girls—Miss Olive Martin, Miss Frances Roberts, Miss Theodora Wilson, and Miss Ines Nenneman. A musical program was given. The church was decorated with greenery and cut flowers.

As the culmination of the celebration each of the guests present signed a velum testimonial with tooled covers, fastened with a gold clasp, for presentation to Bishop and Mrs. Cheney.

MRS. DIPPEL SERIOUSLY ILL.

SISTERS BATTLE IN SWOPE TRIAL

Wife of Doctor Aids in Fight Against Testimony of Relative.

ILL FROM HYDE NEEDLE?

Girl Says Arm Was Swollen After Hypodermic Given in Semi-Darkness.

Kansas City, Mo., April 25.—Sister battled against sister in the Hyde murder trial today.

Miss Margaret Swope, whom it is charged Dr. Hyde attempted to poison, testified to her illness and the typhoid epidemic in the Swope home. Behind Dr. Hyde's attorneys sat Mrs. Hyde, directing the fight on her sister's testimony. Margaret Swope has not fully recovered from typhoid. She is 21 years old.

Mrs. Logan O. Swope watched the duel. Her sympathy was with the younger girl—the mother's witness against a disliked son-in-law.

Describes Giving of Hypodermic.

Miss Swope said that Dr. Hyde came to her room while the lights were burning low one night and gave her a hypodermic. The physician walked into the room, rolled up her sleeve, inserted the needle, and left, she said. Dr. Twyman was in charge of the case.

This arm afterward became sore. The state contends that the injection was of germs, and not camphorated oil, as Dr. Hyde claimed.

"Did Dr. Hyde feel your pulse before he gave you the hypodermic?" was asked.

"No," Miss Swope answered.

"What was the condition of the arm the next morning?"

"It was swollen and painful."

"How long did the arm pain you?"

"For several weeks."

Took Capsule; Convulsion Followed.

On Dec. 18, the day on which Dr. Hyde is accused of having tried to poison her with strychnine, she was feeling much better, said the witness.

"Dr. Hyde looked over my medicine," she said. "A little later Miss Houlihan gave me a capsule. My convulsion followed."

Shortly after that the trouble arose which led to Dr. Hyde's being banished from the house.

"How did you progress after this day?" she was asked.

"I improved rapidly," she replied.

CHICAGOAN LANDS IN PRISON.

Charles Burke Sentenced to Two Year Term for Stealing Notes from Paris Bank.

PARIS, April 25.—Charles Burke of Chicago has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment. He was convicted of stealing a bundle of notes from a bank by means of a cane fitted with a clip.

NOTES FROM FOREIGN LANDS.

BERLIN.—The big airship Zeppelin II., while at anchor on the return voyage from Homburg to Cologne, was partly wrecked at Weilburg. The only occupant was terribly injured.

ROME.—Albert, prince of Monaco, arrived and was received by representatives of King Victor Emmanuel. It is reported that the protest of the vatican against the prince's visit to the king will take the form of a circular note to the papal nuncios instructing them to notify the governments that the visit must not be considered as creating a precedent.

GOVERNMENT WINS IN FRANCE

Elections Result in Increase in Majority in Deputies.

ONE OF MINISTRY LOSES.

Rioting Over Returns Causes Stabbing of Official.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

PARIS, April 25.—The results of yesterday's election in 531 election districts are known. Of these, second ballots will be necessary in 207. In the districts where the definite results were reached the Republicans gained eight members and lost one. The Radicals and Radical-Socialists gained nine districts, but lost fifteen. The Independent Socialists gained six and lost two. The Conservatives and Liberals gained three seats and lost four. The Progressists gained three and lost four. This increases the government majority.

All of the members of the cabinet except M. Millerand, minister of public works, have been reelected. In his case a second ballot will be necessary. Among others who have to stand for election a second time are M. Brisson, president of the chamber of deputies; Jean Jaures, the Socialist leader; Count Boni de Castellane, and M. Deicasse, former minister of foreign affairs.

The declaration of the results at Chambon Feugerolles, in the department of the Loire, was followed by riot. The commissary of police was stabbed, the maire burned, and the local archives destroyed.

IDENTIFY GIRL SEA VICTIM.

Brother-in-Law in Chicago Insists That Miss Estelle Reid Was Murdered in Naples.

NAPLES, April 25.—The American consulate today established the identity of Miss Estelle Reid, whose body was found on the beach Saturday. She was a native of New York. Examination showed that death was due to drowning. The lacerations were the result of the body striking on the rocks before being cast ashore.

Mrs. John Blair, wife of an actor playing in Chicago and living at the Elms hotel, is a sister of Miss Estelle Reid. Mr. Blair insists that Miss Reid was murdered.

The Attack on "Schedule K" in Everybody's Magazine

Answered by the Biggest Man In the Woolen Business

Mr. William Whitman

In the May EVERYBODY'S Mr. Whitman, president of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, and ardently in favor of Schedule K, comes back at Mr. Child, who attacked "Schedule K" in previous numbers. Mr. Child retorts, and Mr. Edward Moir, president of the Carded Woolen Manufacturers' Association, takes a hand. So here you have Mr. Child objecting to the tariff; Mr. Whitman objecting to Mr. Child; Mr. Moir, in the woolen business himself, objecting to both Mr. Whitman and the tariff, and Mr. Whitman again objecting to both the other gentlemen. It's pretty brisk work.

EVERYBODY'S is delighted to have succeeded in getting this big question out into the open. Because we wish to be fair, we have given both sides. If you will get the May EVERYBODY'S and read it, your opinions will be worth more to yourself the next time the question comes up.

USEFUL HINTS TO HOUSE-KEEPERS

A COAT of Natural Jap-a-lac applied over old or new linoleum or oil cloth will double its life by preserving the original coat of varnish, which would otherwise soon be washed or worn off

PORCH FURNITURE should be protected and beautified each spring with Jap-a-lac. It is best to use the color of the old finish, but if you wish to change the color, use Red or Green Jap-a-lac.

WICKER FURNITURE coated with Mahogany, Ox-Blood Red, Malachite Green or Gloss White Jap-a-lac, looks better than new.

WATER PIPES, furnace fronts, radiators, hot water tanks and iron fences are preserved and beautified with the use of Jap-a-lac. Use the Gold Aluminum, Dead Black or Brilliant Black.

JAP-A-LAC is a household necessity, and can be used in a hundred and one ways, from "cellar to garret," and is especially adapted for finishing old or new floors and woodwork. Ask your paint dealer.

PLATITUDES AND POPULAR LEADERSHIP.

Platitudes are powerful truths insufficiently energized.

Mr. Charles Warren Fairbanks might have delivered an address in the Sorbonne containing the essential matter of Mr. Roosevelt's. His public utterances, in fact, have been made up exclusively of the safest and sanest of truisms.

Yet the world drums distractedly upon the table while he talks, or yawns openly in his face.

But let Theodore Roosevelt deliver a volley on the rule of three and the world sits on the edge of its chair, breathes deep, and bursts into thunders of applause.

This is altogether intelligent. The rule of three is in itself one of the most important truths discovered by men in their long voyage down the ages. But the rule of three in the uses of a Stevenson, a De Lesseps, a Harriman is quite another matter from the rule of three in the use of a country shopkeeper. Likewise, a political or social truism with a Roosevelt behind it becomes a force swaying peoples and molding institutions, while in the mouth of one less sincere and less energetic they merely conduce to napping. It is the man behind the platitude that counts.

No man who cannot incandesce the obvious can become a great leader in a democracy. Men of subtlety, like Mr. Balfour, depend upon a caste and a tradition in England, and their power is waning before the advance of democracy there. In America there is none like him. There are public men who are powerful because of their intellectual acumen. There always will be while men's activities are organized. But the leaders will not be found among them.

THE INSPECTION FARCE.

We have long known what above ground municipal inspection amounted to. We have had exemplifications of its worthlessness in the Iroquois theater and Fish fires, in pavements built under the eyes of the property owners who paid for them, and of alleged competent inspectors with sublime disregard of the requirements of specifications, and in deliveries of coal that was not what the contracts called for.

Those who have given the matter any thought have long surmised that since above ground inspection was so bad the inspection of underground work, entirely removed from public scrutiny, must be worse. The minute examination of a section of the Lawrence avenue sewer confirms the surmise. The specifications called for twenty-one inches of concrete. The contractor gave the city an average of thirteen inches. In some places the thickness was only three inches. That swelled his profits, but it endangered the safety of the work. If the sewer had not been driven through tough blue clay it probably would have caved in before this.

This examination raises a doubt as to the character and quality of much other city underground construction. There can be no assurance now that there has not been elsewhere disregard of specifications and cheap, faulty work which may some day need extensive and costly repairing.

The results of the examination are discouraging for another reason. The supposition is that the construction of these important underground works is supervised by men of a higher grade than the ordinary pavement inspector. They are supposed to have a greater sense of duty and to be less amenable to corrupt influences. But if they cannot be depended on to see the difference between twenty-one and three or ten or sixteen inches of concrete, who can be trusted? Why not leave everything to the contractor instead of wasting money on blind inspectors?

If honest inspection of underground work and rigid enforcement of contracts cannot be had, the city will have to stop doing business with contractors. It will have to do that kind of work itself by direct labor, as it did part of the south side intercepting sewer. The work would cost more, but it would be honestly done. There would be no skimping or scamping by the man in charge, as there would be no money in it for him. As bad construction usually means future repair bills, the direct labor work would often prove the cheaper in the end.

Efficient municipal inspection would save lives and money. Civil service examinations have not given it. What shall be tried next to secure something which is so essential to successful local government?

HUGHES FOR THE SUPREME COURT.

That Gov. Hughes should have been tendered a place in the Supreme court is not surprising, but his acceptance was less certain. It was known that the private sacrifice involved in his service as governor was considerable to a man of Gov. Hughes' means and professional opportunity, and it was feared the inadequate financial compensation provided for our Supreme court justices would prevent his acceptance of a position on that bench.

It is to be hoped his acceptance augurs a correction of the evil of underpayment through the passage of the Moon bill.

The accession of Gov. Hughes to our court of last resort will strengthen that tribunal materially—and it sorely needs strengthening. Gov. Hughes' strength is more than professional. His acumen and scholarship are recognized at the bar, but also his high character and political intelligence are widely recognized by the people. Appointments to the Supreme court involve more than the law. They should be based not only on the factors of fitness, which all judges should possess, but also upon political and social wisdom.

Gov. Hughes is in sympathy with the broad general tendencies of the American people. He keenly appreciates the dangers which the republic faces through the excesses of our individualism, the vast new forces created by the concentration of financial power, and the sinister relation of politics and privilege. He is thoroughly enlightened and he will bring to the interpretation of our organic law and to the application of our constitutional principles a sympathy with the people's fears, the people's needs, and the people's ideals, the value of which in this critical period of transition is hardly to be overestimated.

CIVIC COMMITTEE OF WOMEN.

THE TRIBUNE welcomes the inception of an organization made up of representatives from existing women's clubs and dedicated to promoting a knowledge of civic affairs and to active coöperation in civic betterment. A more important and promising project has not been launched for years. It is devoutly to be hoped the plans now maturing will not fail of prompt completion.

There is no field where woman's coöperation is more needed than in that of municipal reform. This is no longer a matter of debate. The woman's stake in civic welfare is too obvious to be questioned, while equally apparent is her fitness to deal wisely with some of the chief problems in municipal misgovernment. The foundations of efficient service already have been laid in the enlightened activities of women's clubs, and intelligent union and coöperation are all that is needed to give to women the influence upon public affairs they are competent and in duty bound to exert.

The committee of 100 is significant not merely of the civic spirit of Chicago women. It represents also the general tendency toward coöperation in civic effort, illustrated by the growth of the Association of Commerce and the wise extension of its interests, the establishment of a league of local improvement association, greater coöperation among the churches, and other similar phenomena.

The total effect of this tendency cannot but be the development of a civic consciousness and a coherent public will which will work wonders in the city.

MR. KLING RETURNS.

It is encouraging to find that Mr. John Kling is not a hypothetical question but a corporal reality. So long as he remained in Kansas City his status was so interrogative as to make it difficult to believe altogether in his continued existence. He was rapidly becoming a myth, or at least a conundrum. It is not necessary to say that THE TRIBUNE'S once prophetic "He's Coming Back" and now questioning "Who's Coming Back" had no reference to the Cub's catcher, but is yet to be revealed as to its import. Nevertheless, Mr. Kling is welcome. A pious wish may be expressed that he survives vaudeville and makes his return complete in form professionally as well as physically.

Now, forward, sawbones, one and all!
Into the fight!

Dash on, dash on, with lance and pill!
Charge, medics, charge, as if you meant it!
Prepare the foeman such a bill
That he'll drop dead when we present it.
CHARGE!
Heaven help him whose purse is small!
Chop! chop! Forward all!
Cut left and right!

They fall beneath our chloroform!
They wilt beneath the lethal cotton!
Now, raise our wounded who're still warm,
And bind up legs and shoulders shotten.
AMBULANCES!
The Red Cross sounds the swift recall:
Clang! clang! Hang on, all!
Bulletins. Good night!

TAKING it by and large, up and down, zig and zag, and criss and cross, yesterday was as fine a day of its kind as we ever sloshed around in.

A SOUP WORTHY OF DR. HYDE.

[From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.]

The careful housekeeper has learned that bad odors from whatever cause may be removed as if by magic by using nitrate of lead. It is a thoroughly effective deodorizer. A pound of the material in combination is an economical soup and almost a meal itself if eaten with good bread and butter. Long, slow cooking is one secret of success for it. Soak one-half with common salt furnished sufficient to make 100 gallons of fluid, so that it is remarkably cheap.

Sartor nascitur, non fit.

Dear Bill: As the season advances our concern for your sartorial welfare becomes positively poignant. Your spring garments keep us awake nights. Float in, old top, and take a look at our imported fabrics.

Our clothes have style, originality, plot, heart interest, character, decision, fascination, and fit. It's a pipe that we can match your complexion and blend with your personality.

THE ADVENTURES OF NIC.

Rosedale, Ind., April 24.—Can't blame Mordecai Brown for coming from here. He couldn't help it; but why did he tell anybody? Mining and farming. The miners are all out and the farmers are all in. The farmers who went barefoot last month have their boots on again. Much converse. One topic—"Brownie." I have had seven different men tell me the story of that missing digit. Each one saw the accident at a different time, place, and way. "Miner" lost a finger in the shaft, in a corn grinder, chopping kindling, hunting, etc., etc. Problem: If Brown can pitch a three foot curve with three fingers, what would be the fourth dimension? WHO'S COMING BACK?

FARRAR IN TOSCA WINS NEW PRAISE.

MISS FARRAR, interpreting the rôle of Tosca for the first time in Chicago, proved a magnet strong enough to attract to the Auditorium an audience that filled the great theater comfortably last night despite the inclement weather. It may be confidently asserted that the public was interested in Miss Farrar rather than in the opera itself, which has never achieved that measure of popularity which is accorded its successor, "Mme. Butterfly," a circumstance most easily to be explained by a comparison of the libretti on which the two operas are constructed. In either case it is the story rather than the music that attracts the public. But the story of "Tosca" is a grim, relentless tragedy, entirely unrelieved by those moments of happiness that make the listener forget the pathos of "Mme. Butterfly" for the moment at least. The music seems to be about of equal worth in either opera. In fact, much of the beauty of the "Butterfly" score is borrowed directly from the earlier work.

The title rôle of "Tosca" affords a singing actress some remarkable opportunities, and in the light of her achievements in other highly emotional rôles one was justified in expecting great things of Miss Farrar. The event brought no disappointment. The gifted young American approached her task with the same comprehensive grasp of its dramatic possibilities and the same versatile command of her extensive interpretative means. Vocally the rôle is more grateful than Butterfly because it imposes no such disguising of the voice as is made necessary in the first act of that opera.

From the raising of the curtain one was made to feel the full power and beauty of her remarkable voice, the vital sincerity of the actress, and the wonderful resources of the musician who could compass the expression of such varied and intense emotion with such evident sincerity and yet retain the plastic grace of melodic phrase.

Miss Farrar enjoyed the splendid support of Scotti's interpretation of Scarpia and of a well balanced cast and adequate choral and orchestral forces. G. D. G.

MRS. POTTER INHERITS $40,000

Former Actress Beneficiary of Mrs. Ida Richardson's Will—$50,000 for Mrs. Urquhart.

Cora Urquhart Potter, the actress who was once Mrs. James Brown Potter, will benefit to the extent of $40,000 from the will of Mrs. Ida Richardson of New Orleans, widow of the late Prof. P. D. Richardson of Tulane university, which was filed in the Cook county Probate court yesterday.

Mrs. Potter is living with her mother, Mrs. Caroline A. Urquhart, at Staines Bridge, England. Mrs. Urquhart, who was a sister of Mrs. Richardson, will receive $50,000, and to each of the other nieces and nephew—the Countess Slocomb di Brazzo of Venice, Georgine Urquhart of Paris, and David Urquhart of San Francisco—will be given $40,000.

The estate is valued at $350,000. Other bequests include $25,000 to Tulane university, $20,000 to the St. Anna asylum, New Orleans, and nearly $50,000 to former servants. Mrs. Richardson died at her New Orleans residence on April 10.

SOTHERN AND MARLOWE APPEAR

Begin Shakspearean Festival with Presentation of "As You Like It."

Miss Marlowe and Mr. Sothern began their fortnight's Shakspearean festival last evening in the Lyric theater with a presetation of "As You Like It." The performance, though listless, was up to the fairly respectable standard of these stars in répertoire, and was observed by an attentive and extensive assemblage. Miss Marlowe was seen as Rosalind and Mr. Sothern as Jaques. The comedy will be acted again tonight.

MEET OPERA MANAGER? $350.

Costs Five Per Cent of Singer's Salary to Get Introduction, Says Anna Meitschik.

Five per cent of a good salary often is the value of an introduction between grand opera stars and managers. This fact was brought out at a hearing before United States Commissioner Wirt E. Humphrey, where depositions were taken from stars of the Metropolitan Opera company now in Chicago to be used in a New York suit. Anna Meitschik testified that she paid 5 per cent of her salary of $7,000 a year, or $350, to Gabriel S. Astruc, foreign representative of the Metropolitan company, because he introduced her to Giulio Gatti-Casazza, the manager.

ACTOR DE HAVEN SUED FOR $53.

New Orleans Woman Says That Sum Is Due on Cameos and Bracelet He Bought of Her.

Carter De Haven, leading man in "The Girl in the Taxi," at the Cort theater, who recently battled with his leading woman, Miss Adele Ritchie, again entered the realm of trouble yesterday when he was sued for $53 in the Municipal court by Mrs. H. Kell of New Orleans. The complaint charges that the actor nine months ago purchased some cameos, miniatures and a gold bracelet, for which he has failed to pay. The case was set for May 2.

BARRIE DIVORCE IS ABSOLUTE.

English Author Given Final Decree of Separation from Wife, Formerly an Actress.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

LONDON, April 25.—J. M. Barrie's divorce was made absolute today. The first decree was granted to the writer on Oct. 13, 1909, after his wife had admitted misconduct with Gilbert Cannan, a young author. Mrs. Barrie was Mary Ansell, actress.

CITY SENDS ONLY ONE WOMAN TO "MODEL LODGING HOUSE."

Doors Kept Open Until 10 P. M., but No Others Apply; Dr. Hunt Says Appropriation Will Be Asked.

No. 1. Susan Albrecht. No home. No effects.

This was the first card issued by the city of Chicago to a destitute woman which gave her a bed at the Woman's Model lodging house, 4040 Calumet avenue.

Yesterday was the first day on which the lodging house was open to receive homeless women from the city authorities. Clerk Michael Leo, assistant to Dr. George C. Hunt, head of the hospital and ambulance service of the board of health, kept his office open until 10 p. m. ready to assign any applicant to the new municipal quarters for women. Mrs. Albrecht was the only one sent in.

"I will be surprised if there is an average of more than two or three a day," said Dr. Hunt. "We will know after we have tried the system out how many women there are without homes who are entitled to this service from the city. This is an experiment.

"If it turns out that the number is large enough next year we will ask for an appropriation to build a suitable house and maintain it. If the facts justify it such an appropriation will not be refused by the city."

TARIFF POLICY DEFENDED BY SHERMAN IN ST. LOUIS ADDRESS

Vice President Says Payne Law Is Best That Could Be Secured—Plea for Interests of American Labor.

St. Louis, Mo., April 25.—Predicting that tariff in general and the Payne law in particular are sure to be the principal issues of the coming campaign, Vice President James S. Sherman, in a speech here tonight, said it was his duty as a protectionist to defend the policy. The speech was delivered before the Citizens' Industrial association.

He said the policy of protection is growing, and that it is to be national rather than a political one. The forecast was made that not within the life span of any present living American will the policy be abandoned.

"I am one of those old fashioned protectionists who believe in American wages and the American standard of living," the vice president said, "and that the way to maintain these is by doing our own work. Such faith, however, does not preclude the occasional revision of our tariff and the changing of duties either up or down to meet changed conditions in our industrial and commercial transactions.

"No previous tariff law was more carefully prepared or more exhaustively considered than the law which went into effect last August. It was not satisfactory to all. No tariff law ever was or will be, but it was the best law we could get, and its basic principle is protection."

Mr. Sherman then reviewed the trade conditions since the new tariff law went into effect and pointed to the general prosperity of the country as an encouraging feature. He said it was necessary always to protect the interests of American labor.

PUPILS AID SCHOOL ECONOMY.

Lane Students Offer to Make Machinery for Own Use and the Other Technical Institutions.

An example of economy and of mechanical ability has been vouchsafed the Chicago board of education by the pupils of the Lane Technical High school. Instead of asking for $3,000 worth of needed machinery, the pupils propose to make it themselves, and, if asked, to make similar machines for the other technical schools. The offer was communicated to President Alfred R. Urion by Principal William J. Bogan yesterday.

TORONTO U. ALUMNI DINE.

Chicago Graduates of the Canadian School Are Hosts to Its President.

Chicago alumni of the University of Toronto gave a dinner at the University club last evening in honor of Robert E. Falconer, president of the university. The graduates organized themselves as the Toronto University Alumni association of Chicago.

CUPID BUSY IN SOCIETY

The marriage of Miss Litta C. Banschbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Banschbach, formerly of Oberscheffienz, Germany, but now of Princeton, to George R. Bascom, son of the late W. R. Bascom, will take place tomorrow at Princeton. Miss Banschbach recently was a favorite student and Kappa Kappa Gamma at Northwestern university. Later she was graduated at the University of Illinois.

The marriage of Miss Florence Dean Letourneau, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. Letourneau, 3601 Ellis avenue, to Howard Inglis Lamberton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hull Lamberton, will take place at the Sixth Presbyterian church this evening. The Rev. William P. Merrill will officiate.

The wedding of Miss Marguerite Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell of 3252 Warren avenue, to Laurence Flitcraft, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Flitcraft of Oak Park, will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of the bride. The Rev. Frank G. Smith will perform the ceremony. Miss Ada Masters will serve the bride as maid of honor and Roland B. Flitcraft will be best man. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Flitcraft gave a dinner at their Oak Park residence last evening for the young people of the bridal party.

Miss Margaret Billings will go to New York to be the only attendant at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Blanche Pauline Billings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings, to William Halsted Vander Poel, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. Oakley Vander Poel. The wedding is to take place at the residence of the bride's parents, Tryon Hall, in New York on June 4. S. Oakley Vander Poel is to be the best man and the ushers are to be Charles E. Greenough, Theron R. Strong, Wright Barclay, Douglas Green, Peter E. Farnum Jr., Lynford M. Dickinson, and Albert M. Billings.

NEW QUEBEC TIMBER RULES FORBID PULP WOOD EXPORT.

All Material Must Be Manufactured Before Leaving Province—Ground Rent Rates Are Raised.

Quebec, April 25.—"All timber cut on crown lands after the 1st of May, 1910, must be manufactured in Canada, that is to say, converted into pulp or paper, into bales or boards, or into any other articles of commerce or merchandise."

This is the clause in the new Quebec timber regulations which prohibits the exportation of pulp wood to the United States.

The ground rent is increased from $3 to $5, and there is a general increase in the stumpage dues of 60 per cent.

ROOSEVELT GUEST OF PARIS

City Officials Pay Many Tributes to Former President.

SEES RELICS OF REVOLT.

American Says He Cannot Fill Ideal Given by French.

PARIS, April 25.—Theodore Roosevelt was received by the municipal officials in the Hotel de Ville and was the subject of tributes pronounced by M. Caron, president of the municipal council; M. Deselves, prefect of the Seine; M. Lampuo, president of the general council of the Seine; and M. Lepine, prefect of police.

Mr. Roosevelt expressed his deepest gratitude, and added:

"You make of me an ideal which I can only try to realize in the future."

Sees Relics of Revolution.

After an inspection of the building, Mr. Roosevelt sat down to luncheon between Premier Briand and M. Caron. Only formal toasts were given. The ex-president proposed a toast to Paris and the French people.

During a visit which he paid to the Carnavalet museum, Col. Roosevelt manifested great interest in the original revolutionary documents. When shown Louis XVI.'s order instructing the Swiss guard to lay down their arms, he recalled Mark Twain's statement that if Louis hadn't had the virtues of a mediæval female saint there would have been a large number of communists in the Paris graveyards that night.

Pays Visit to Notre Dame.

From the museum Col. Roosevelt, accompanied by Ambassador Bacon and M. Jusserand, French ambassador to the United States, visited Notre Dame. Owing to lack of time the climb to the towers, which rise more than 200 feet, was abandoned.

At the opera tonight Col. Roosevelt enjoyed a repetition of the reception he received at the Comédie Française Thursday night.

CHICAGO TO INVITE ROOSEVELT.

Association of Commerce Sends Cablegram to Him in Paris Relative to Visit to This City.

Steps were taken yesterday by the Association of Commerce to bring Theodore Roosevelt here as soon after his return to America as is possible, and to give to him a reception which will be eclipsed by none other in the United States or abroad. President Henry A. Stillwell of the association sent him a cablegram in Paris relative to the visit. It was followed by a message from Mayor Busse indorsing the body's move.

Officers of the association have been asked to assist in the New York reception to the former president, and a committee from the Chicago organization will be sent.

The association's "Four thousand week" opened yesterday with a boom at a luncheon in the Great Northern hotel. The officers spoke and expressed confidence that their goal of 4,000 members by Friday night would be reached.

RAILWAY HEARINGS OPEN HERE.

Interstate Commerce Commission Looking Into Reduced Passenger Fare and Cut Freight Rate Practices.

The interstate commerce commission's hearings on practices of railroads in granting reduced fares to members of particular organizations and reduced freight rates on return shipments of unsold, damaged, or defective goods were opened here yesterday. The findings will be used by the commission as basis for rulings on whether the practices are legal.

The hearings on passenger rates, which occupied the morning session, follow complaints that the practice permits discriminations. Some time ago the body ruled in favor of the scheme—known as the certificate system—but that ruling is thought by some persons to be in conflict with other rate decisions.

The hearing on return freight rates was at the instance of shippers who were displeased with the commission's recent declaration that the rate cutting for returned goods was illegal.

TO HAVE WOMAN'S CIVIC CLUB.

Organization of New Body Now in the Hands of Committee Named Yesterday.

Organization of a woman's civic club was decided on yesterday at a meeting at the Chicago Woman's club. A committee of seven was appointed to formulate plans for the new body and to report within two weeks. The organization committee, which will hold its first meeting on Thursday, consists of Mrs. H. M. Wilmarth, chairman, Mrs. Edward L. Murfey, secretary, Miss Julia Lathrop, Mrs. L. A. Hamlin, Mrs. John D. Sherwood, Mrs. George B. Carpenter, and Mrs. Frank J. Scott.

CHINESE PRINCE HERE TODAY.

Uncle of Emperor on Way to Washington with Messages for Taft and Dickinson.

Prince Tsai Tao Poy Lak, uncle of the emperor of China and minister of war in the imperial cabinet, will reach Chicago at noon today with his suite and depart for Washington this evening. He was sent to the United States with important messages for President Taft and Secretary of War Dickinson. He will visit Fort Sheridan and have a private luncheon with Gen. Grant and Maj. Gen. Carter.

PHILIPPINES SAFER THAN HERE.

This Is the Belief of Maj. Gen. W. H. Carter, Late Commander in Luzon.

The Philippine islands are safer for the peaceful man than is Chicago, is the judgment of Maj. Gen. William Harding Carter, late commander of the department of Luzon, now assistant to the chief of staff. Gen. Carter, with Mrs. Carter, arrived in Chicago yesterday afternoon from San Francisco en route to Washington.

FREDERICK HAVEMEYER IS DEAD

Brother of Sugar Trust Head Fond of Stage People; an "Angel" When 72 Years Old.

New York, April 25.—[Special.]—Frederick Christian Havemeyer, eldest brother of Henry O. Havemeyer, sugar trust head, died today. He was 78 years old. Havemeyer's admiration for stage people brought him into prominence. Dispatches six years ago from Detroit, Baltimore, and other places mentioned him as an "angel" to certain musical comedy soubrettes.

Cleveland, O., April 25.—[Special.]—[…] tide turned a bit today, and not only di[d the] Sox get a chance to play a game, but [they] actually won it and gave Frank Piano S[mith] a fragment of revenge on Cleveland for [what] was put over on him in twelve inning[s the] last time he faced the McGuires. It [was] Chicago's game, 2 to 0, but it ought to [have] been so by a much larger margin.

Smith held Cleveland's sluggers to t[…] singles, and only once did they get ne[ar …] run off him, despite the fact that Man[ager] McGuire used a whole corps of reserve[s to]ward the finish. Duffy's men showed [that] their long rest had sharpened their bat[ting] eyes, for they slugged Berger for nine [hits,] three of them double wallops, besides [a] number of solid swats of which tough [luck] deprived them. That old team of Sox w[ould] have made many tallies out of today's [hit]ting, but the vacation seemed to have du[lled] the new Sox's wits, for they committed [nu]merous baseball misdemeanors, not to [mention …] crimes, by which swell opportunities ei[ther] were wasted or only half improved.

Back of all, however, is the fact that [the Sox] started pickling the hits, picking out [good] balls, and they did it against a pitcher [who] had held them close in his previous assault ag[ainst] their bats. There is more encouragement i[n that than] in the mere victory itself.

Cold Refuses to Disappear.

There was more baseball in the game than [there] was in the whole county of Cuyahoga, for i[t was] cold enough to blast all the blooming bud[s on] Comiskey's young apple trees, and the brief [time] during which the sun shone served only to [ac]centuate the temperature. But there was no s[now] on the ground, and for that the Sox were [thankful,] although their late arrival did not [permit] them to get well limbered up after their [days] of moping around the St. Louis hotel.

Manager Hugh sprung a new lineup, putting [Collins] into the outfield in place of Barrows, and [sending] Parent around to left to let the brigand […]. Collins achieved great distinction f[or …] who had been in a major league game only [once …] in his whole life to strike out for an[…] in the ninth inning. He hit the ball so [hard the] first three times at bat that, although only [one] went safe, Berger honored him by giving [an] intentional base on balls when John cam[e up with the] Sox on third and second and one out in [the …] inning. That is getting a rep fast f[or a young]ster.

Collins' first hit really won the game, f[or it] started in the first run in the seventh inning. Gandil's hitting was the real feature, for [he] hit four of them squarely in the middle, [and two of] his drives went for doubles, one for a si[ngle and] the other was corralled by Krueger af[ter a] hard run. Payne and Purtell bagged [two] apiece and Zeider one.

Sox Play Crazy Baseball.

The Sox ought to have had the game in cold [storage] inside of two innings, and ordinarily w[ould] have scored several runs in that time. [Hahn] walked before Berger got the range. Zeider [had] three balls called before a strike was pit[ched.] Then, instead of attempting a sacrifice, h[e swung] twice at the next one that came over and po[pped up] a little fly. That cost at least a run, for G[andil] followed with a clean single on which Hahn [should] have scored. Birmingham nailed Collins' [line dr]ive to center, and a passed ball let bot[h run]ners advance, but Parent bumped o[ut to] Lajoie for the third out.

The next inning was worse. Purtell led w[ith a] single, and Blackburne, trying to sacrifice, po[pped] an easy fly to Bradley. Then they tried a hit [and run,] which miscued, Payne missing the ball [and] Purtell being massacred at second. Fred [Payne] walked safely, but Smith fouled out. Fo[r the] next three innings not a visitor saw first a[nd it] looked as if Berger had them tamed. But [after] two gone in the sixth Gandil ripped a terri[fic drive] far left for two bases, only to ruin a [good] chance for a tally by trying to steal th[ird in a] bad situation and getting nipped.

Collins had a two bagger in his bat all the [time] and got it out of his stick at the start of the [seventh] round. It went over in left. Parent sacr[ificed] John to third, and Purtell scored him w[ith a] single over second. Blackburne fanned fo[r the] second time, but Payne singled, and there w[as a] chance for another tally until Smith's ta[p] stopped the rally.

Berger Forces In One.

The eighth saw the Sox compelled to take [a] forced run, despite bad baseball. Hahn w[alked] when Zeider singled to center. Gandil fol[lowed] with another two-base poke, this time agains[t the] right field fence. They stopped Rollie at third [and] he nearly perished there. Berger purposely p[assed] Debutant Collins, filling the bags, with one [out.] Then he could not find the plate again, but P[arent] helped him by hitting at the first one that [came] near him, although he had two balls and no s[trikes.] It popped up to Ball. Purtell play[ed it] string clear out and drew a pass, forcing Z[eider] home with the second run. Blackburne flie[d out,] leaving the bags full.

The nearest Cleveland came to scoring a r[un] Smith was in the first round. Two were out [when] Turner singled and made third on Larry's [long] drive to right. They tried a double steal [and] although Payne threw poorly to second, T[urner] stopped half way home and Blackburne go[t the] ball back in time to chase Tuck out.

Not another McGuire was allowed on first [until] the sixth. Then Blackburne booted Ball's gro[under] and Berger sacrificed, but Smith got the ne[xt two] easily.

When Bemis led in the eighth with a scrat[ch hit] through Purtell, Manager McGuire broug[ht] his reserves to the rescue. Graney went on [to run] for Bemis, but Smith cooly struck out Birmin[gham.] Stovall, batting for Ball, then clouted a warm [one to] Zeider and a fast double play closed that sess[ion.]

Lajoie Fails in Pinch.

In the ninth it looked for a minute as if [Smith] were going to toss away his own victory, [for he] passed Clarke, who batted for Berger. But Kr[ueger] forced Nig and barely beat out a double [play.] Bradley fouled out and Smith issued his s[econd] pass to Turner. The mighty Lajoie was nex[t and] the crowd roared, but it looked as if Smit[h had] maneuvered just to get Larry up to bat and [put] him up, for he pitched two strikes across, [then] tried, on which Lajoie grounded nicely to P[urtell] for the final out. BY I. E. SANBORN.

Cleveland, O., April 25.—[Special.]—The tide turned a bit today, and not only did the Sox get a chance to play a game, but they actually won it and gave Frank Piano Smith a fragment of revenge on Cleveland for what was put over on him in twelve innings the last time he faced the McGuires. It was Chicago's game, 2 to 0, but it ought to have been so by a much larger margin.

Smith held Cleveland's sluggers to three singles, and only once did they get near a run off him, despite the fact that Manager McGuire used a whole corps of reserves toward the finish. Duffy's men showed that their long rest had sharpened their batting eyes, for they slugged Berger for nine hits, three of them double wallops, besides any number of solid swats of which tough luck deprived them. That old team of Sox would have made many tallies out of today's batting, but the vacation seemed to have dulled the new Sox's wits, for they committed numerous baseball misdemeanors, not to say crimes, by which swell opportunities either were wasted or only half improved.

Back of all, however, is the fact that the Sox started pickling the hits, picking out good balls, and they did it against a pitcher who had held them close in his previous assault against their bats. There is more encouragement in that than in the mere victory itself.

Cold Refuses to Disappear.

There was more baseball in the game than there was in the whole county of Cuyahoga, for it was still enough to blast all the blooming buds on Cuyahoga's young apple trees, and the brief time during which the sun shone served only to accentuate the temperature. But there was no snow on the ground, and for that the Sox were fully thankful, although their late arrival did not permit them to get well limbered up after their three days of moping around the St. Louis hotel.

Manager Hugh sprung a new lineup, putting Collins into the outfield in place of Barrows, and moving Parent around to left to let the brigand play short. Collins achieved great distinction for a man who had been in a major league game only long enough in his whole life to strike out for another pinch hitter in the ninth inning. He hit the ball so hard his first three times at bat that, although only one went safe, Berger honored him by giving him an intentional base on balls when John came up with Sox on third and second and one out in the eighth inning. That is getting a rep fast for a beginner.

Collins' first hit really won the game, for it resulted in the first run in the seventh inning, but Gandil's hitting was the real feature, for Chic smashed four of them squarely in the middle. Two of his drives went for doubles, one for a single, and the other was corralled by Krueger after a long, hard run. Payne and Purtell bagged two singles and Zeider one.

Sox Play Crazy Baseball.

The Sox ought to have had the game in cold storage inside of two innings, and ordinarily would have scored several runs in that time. Hahn walked before Berger got the range. Zeider also had three balls called before a strike was pitched. Then, instead of attempting a sacrifice, he cut loose at the next one that came over and popped a little fly. That cost at least a run, for Gandil followed with a clean single on which Hahn could have scored. Birmingham nailed Collins' line smash to center, and a passed ball let both Sox runners advance, but Parent bumped one to Lajoie for the third out.

The next inning was worse. Purtell led with a single, and Blackburne, trying to sacrifice, popped an easy fly to Bradley. Then they tried a hit and run which miscued, Payne missing the ball and Purtell being massacred at second. Fred then walked safely, but Smith fouled out. For the next three innings not a visitor saw first and it looked as if Berger had them tamed. But with two gone in the sixth Gandil ripped a terrific fly too far left for two bases, only to ruin a possible chance for a tally by trying to steal third in that situation and getting nipped.

Collins had a two bagger in his bat all the time, and got it out of his stick at the start of the next round. It went over in left. Parent sacrificed John to third, and Purtell scored him with a single over second. Blackburne fanned for the second time, but Payne singled, and there was a chance for another tally until Smith's tall fly stopped the rally.

Berger Forces In One.

The eighth saw the Sox compelled to take their second run, despite bad baseball. Hahn was out and Zeider singled to center. Gandil followed with another two-base poke, this time against the right field fence. They stopped Rollie at third, and he nearly perished there. Berger purposely passed Collins, filling the bags, with one down. Then he could not find the plate again, but Parent helped him by hitting at the first one that came near him, although he had two balls and no strikes called. It popped up to Ball. Purtell played his string clear out and drew a pass, forcing Zeider home with the second run. Blackburne flied out, leaving the bags full.

The nearest Cleveland came to scoring a run off Smith was in the first round. Two were out when Turner singled and made third on Larry's clean drive to right. They tried a double steal and, although Payne threw poorly to second, Turner was half way home and Blackburne got the ball back in time to chase Tuck out.

Not another McGuire was allowed on first until the sixth. Then Blackburne booted Ball's grounder and Berger sacrificed, but Smith got the next two easily.

When Bemis led in the eighth with a scratch hit through Purtell, Manager McGuire brought all his reserves to the rescue. Graney went on to run for Bemis, but Smith cooly struck out Birmingham, Easterly, batting for Ball, then clouted a warm one to Zeider and a fast double play closed that session.

Lajoie Fails in Pinch.

In the ninth it looked for a minute as if Smith was going to toss away his own victory, for he passed Clarke, who batted for Berger. But Krueger hit and barely beat out a double play. Bradley fouled out and Smith issued his second pass to Turner. The mighty Lajoie was next and the crowd roared, but it looked as if Smith had maneuvered just to get Larry up to bat and show him up, for he pitched two strikes across, then a ball on which Lajoie grounded nicely to Purtell for the final out. NOTES OF THE WHITE SOX

Cleveland, O., April 25.—[Special.]—That's two on the right side.

The new Cleveland plant is a grand affair and is practically complete, only a few minor fixings remaining to be added to it.

Only 2,695 bugs braved the chill lake breezes, which made sweaters imperative to watch the battle with any degree of safety.

Berger slipped in fielding Parent's sacrifice in the seventh and if Fred had run hard all the way he might have beaten the throw.

The Sox had a chance to score again in the ninth, when Turner missed Payne's easy grounder. Smith sacrificed him to second, but Hahn fanned and Zeider rolled out by way of Turner.

The Sox were not asked to do many tough fielding stunts, but Blackburne shone once, when he stabbed a vicious grounder from Lord, which took a nasty bound just as it reached him.

Smith struck out Lajoie in the seventh inning and perhaps that was why he wanted to show him up again in the ninth, where a long hit from Larry's bat would have tied things up.

Smith has allowed Cleveland eight hits in two games, and just half of those were made in the eleventh and twelfth innings of his first game after the Sox should have won a one hit battle for him.

Hahn would have been doubled up off second when Collins hit a line drive to Birmingham with one out in the first inning, but Birmingham made a bad throw to second and Ball couldn't connect in time. That bit of luck profited the Sox nothing, however.

JONES' NOSE BROKEN BY BALL

Detroit First Sacker Comes in Contact with Hartzell's Liner.

St. Louis, Mo., April 25.—A hit batsman, Bush's error, a passed ball, and a sacrifice fly gave St. Louis the winning run over Detroit in the twelfth inning today, 6 to 5. A hot liner from Hartzell's bat in the ninth inning broke First Baseman Jones' nose and he was carried from the field, Crawford going to first and D. Jones to center. The game was played on a muddy field with the temperature near freezing, both teams playing a ragged game, marked by heavy hitting and many miscues. Score:

McCarthy May Join Cubs Later.

South Bend, Ind., April 25.—[Special.]—"Chink" McCarthy, the fast Notre Dame shortstop, may join the Chicago Cubs before the end of the season. It is reported here that McCarthy already has agreed to report to President Murphy in August. He plans to play with the South Bend club the first half of the season.

Economy Run Is Postponed.

Because of the stormy weather the Chicago Motor club yesterday decided to postpone the economy test event scheduled for Thursday for one week. The entry list will be reopened and it may be that several names will be added.

"SPRING IS HERE."

The bloke who erstwhile warbled thus
When flow'rs appeared before their time,
And started a poetic fuss
In more or less balladic rhyme—
He said he knew that "spring was here"
Because such tokens did appear.

He knew it from the robin's song,
Hepatica and crocus buds;
He knew because the shopping throng
Was bent on buying summer duds.
He knew we'd sprung the winter lid.
O, yes, he knew—like Kelly did.

Supposing some one whose conscience was merely a trace, whose sense of fairplay had died a'bornin', whose work was unspeakably coarse, who would count that day lost whereon he had not trimmed some innocent person, who had resorted to every low down trick and foible to give somebody the worst of it, who had no more principle than a rat and no more soul than a cholera microbe—supposing some such person were under discussion and getting what was due him, some dough faced mutt would arise and stampede the argument by crying out: "Butyegottagivitoom; he'sgettinthemoney."

JUST ABOUT, OLD CHAP.

"Are you as well posted on the Jeffries-Johnson fight and other sports as you were on the location of the weather bureau? RAFFLES."

Clarence Berry, the Alaska-Yukon-Bakersfield millionaire, is setting it in on Jeffries at any price. Of course this does not of itself make Jeff a cinch, but there is something uncanny in the way Clarence lights on the right side of things. All the mineralogical sharps told him there was no gold on the bank of the Yukon river opposite the one that was being worked, but he foolishly wandered over there and stumbled across a million. While all the oil prospectors with scientific dope were boring in the foothills as the only place to find petroleum around Bakersfield Clarence sunk a well in the valley below and struck a veritable lake of the stuff and since has been affixing zeros to the end of his bankroll at the rate of one a second. He says he will bet a quarter of a million on Jeffries before he closes his book. You may not share his optimism, but you can't get away from that charm.

Ten weeks of vaudeville at $700 a week against seven months of baseball at $640 a month? If the game is garnering the kale seed why should a business man hesitate?

They're off in the peach crop handicap—all in a bunch. Not a bloomer left at the post.

Git oot yer sonsie curlin' stanes,

Wi' skirlin' snaw an' a' that.
E'en tho' we shad be playin' noo
Wi' gowfin clubs an' a' that,
E'en tho' wi' ice we shad be thro',
'Tis curlin' time for a' that.

Somebody wants to know if the colored sportsmen's special to the big fight will have white porters.

Writing from Bismarck, N. D., "Hank" asks: "Are you sure that F. S. Roose, of Elizabeth, N. J., and J. Newton Culver of Spokane are not one and the same person?" No answer.

T. O. M.: No interference whatever with anybody's independent notion of "the best ever."

We can't see John W. Gates as governor of Texas enforcing all the fearful and wonderful tiddy fol la reformative measures they have down there. The idea of pinching a party for playing seven-up on a railroad train and our former full blooded fellow townsman doesn't blend.

Evidently the young baseball scribe who pulled the simile, "As green with envy as an absinthe frappe," has been getting his insidious opalescent poison at a grocery store.

You can't imagine a more welcome settler in Chicago than the same John Evers would be. He is the one great ball player who never made anybody tired.

THREE NEW LEADERS RISE IN STATE BOWLING EVENTS.

Canfield in Singles, Williams and Lee in Doubles, and Northwest Team Take Top Positions.

Three new leaders developed in the state bowling tourney yesterday. Ed Canfield went to the front among the individuals with 644, Billy Williams and Billy Lee totaled 1,184 in the doubles, and at night Northwest leaguers set down 2,764 pins in the five men event, displacing the 2,718 of the Arlingtons.

Canfield's mark is expected to land a good piece of the prize money. He started off with 223, and followed with two more double century counts of 202 and 219. Scores:

GIANTS WIN BRILLIANT GAME

Beat Brooklyn in Contest Marked by Spectacular Fielding.

TRIPLE PLAY IS FEATURE.

Bridwell, Doyle, Merkle, Delvin and Myers Perform Unusual Feat.

New York, April 25.—In a game marked by brilliant fielding, the Giants today defeated Brooklyn, 3 to 1. In the sixth inning Bridwell started a triple play by stopping Hummel's grounder and throwing to Doyle for a force out on Wheat. Doyle's throw to Merkle caught Hummel at first and Burch, who had overrun third, was nipped at the plate. There also were four double plays. Score:

Games Today.

Pittsburg at Chicago. Brooklyn at New York.
St. Louis at Cincinnati. Boston at Philadelphia.

BY R. W. LARDNER.

The Pittsburg baseball club, which won the world's championship title last fall, is spending a few days' vacation in Chicago. Manager Fred Clarke brought his players on here Sunday morning for a rest. He thought the quiet of this city would do the athletes a world of good after their hard conflict with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Manager Chance of the Chicago Cubs, the local National league team, has been trying to persuade Mr. Clarke to come out to the west side grounds and play an exhibition game with his club, but the weather has been unfit for baseball and so no battles have been started. The one that might have come off yesterday afternoon was postponed on account of rain, snow and wet grounds.

Meanwhile, Manager Chance and President Murphy amused themselves by making a few more shifts in the schedule. The game that should have been played between the Pirates and Cubs last Sunday, but was not, now is booked for Oct. 7 instead of May 6, as was announced yesterday. The one there was no chance of playing yesterday will be played, perhaps, on June 23. But there will have to be a decided change in the weather before that time or more switching will be necessary.

McIntire Again Today—Maybe.

It can be stated with some degree of certainty that Harry McIntire will pitch against the world's champions before the season is over. The outlook for today is anything but promising, but if ever there is another ball game, McIntire probably will pitch it.

Some of the Cubs drifted over to the American Music hall yesterday afternoon and saw John Kling make his first appearance as a vaudevillian. Earlier in the day John went up to President Murphy's office to talk whatever business there was to be talked, but he missed connections with the magnate. Kling said he would send the commission the sum of $700 some time this week. He also said that he would insist on receiving a full pay check from the Cubs for this year's work despite his tardiness in joining the club.

Kling's stage stunt came on right after the intermission. As an introduction, moving pictures of the Cubs-Sox series were shown. Then the manager of the theater recited a prologue and presented to the audience Capt. A. C. Anson, whom he called "the father of baseball." The G. O. M. was given an enthusiastic welcome. Kling was introduced and must have felt good over the noise that greeted his appearance. After shaking hands with Capt. Anson, he made the following speech:

"I want to thank you, ladies and gentlemen—and Mr. Morris—in behalf of me."

Rings Gong; Game On.

These words made a tremendous impression. Jack Lait rang the gong and the pool match was on. You almost could see most of the shots by the aid of a mirror back of the table. Kling broke the balls and Anson had a majority at the end of the frame. John evened it up after the second break and the score was 15 all. Neither player was up to his game and Kling's average suffered horribly through errors. Anyhow, John won out by the tight score of 25 to 23 and then there were curtain calls for both the heroes. On this second attempt Kling said:

"I want to say that I came back to play ball."

He then made a hurried but graceful exit.

CHOYNSKI SLOWS JEFFRIES' WORK

Light Exercise for Several Days Ordered by New Chief of Camp.

SURF DIP DAY'S FEATURE

Berger and Pugilist Have Yet to Name Formally Their Choice for Referee.

Rowardennan, Cal., April 25.—Following the suggestion of Joe Choynski, new physical director at Camp Rowardennan, Jeffries forsook the training schedule today, and if he can be prevailed upon to accept the advice of his handlers it will be several days before the gymnasium and the handball court see him again.

The big fighter has been annoyed during the last few days by a skin eruption on his back, a condition diagnosed by Choynski as a serious disorder of the blood. It is the latter's opinion that Jeffries has been working too hard since he went into training and from now on the work will be regulated with greater system.

Accompanied by Berger, Farmer Burns and a party of friends Jeffries took an automobile trip to Santa Cruz this afternoon, where the former champion had a dip in the surf and enjoyed a hot salt water tub bath. A swift trip from the beach brought the party back to Ben Lomond in time for the evening meal, at which Jeffries displayed an appetite set on edge by the sea breeze.

Berger and Jeffries as yet have had no formal talk over the referee, although the date for the selection of the man who is to officiate at Emeryville is only a little more than a week distant. Whatever views they may hold as to who the referee should be are not being disclosed.

MOVE TO STOP THE BIG FIGHT.

Methodist Ministers Will Ask Entire Country to Protest Against Jeffries-Johnson Battle.

Cincinnati, O., April 25.—[Special.]—A national movement was started here today at the meeting of the Methodist ministers of Cincinnati to stop the Jeffries-Johnson fight in California on July 4. Churches in all parts of the country will be asked to help agitate the protest of the Cincinnati clergymen, who say that the permission of the fight can be regarded as nothing less than a national disgrace.

ROOSEVELT TO GET FIGHT PASS.

Solid Gold Ticket for Jeffries-Johnson Battle Will Be Presented on Colonel's Arrival in Gotham.

Denver, Colo., April 25.—The first ticket for the fight between Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson at San Francisco on July 4 will be presented to Theodore Roosevelt on his arrival in New York. This statement was made by Jack Gleason while in Denver on his way to the coast. The ticket will be made of solid gold and appropriately engraved.

COULON LACKS FINISH PUNCH

Local Bantamweight Rushes Burns in Brooklyn Fight, but Fails to Deliver Sleep Producer.

New York, April 25.—[Special.]—Johnny Coulon, who styles himself the bantam champion, fought a draw tonight with Frankie Burns of New Jersey at the Marathon A. C. in Brooklyn. From the opening round both boys went at each other like two lions, Coulon being the most aggressive. From the third round to the finish Coulon rushed Burns to the ropes in nearly every round.

Mowatt Loses at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., April 25.—Harry Brewer of Kansas City and Clarence English of Omaha fought ten rounds to a draw at 145 pounds here tonight. Tommy Mowatt lost a ten round decision to Pierce Matthews of Denver. Willie Gibbs of Philadelphia and Tommy Gary of Chicago will fight fifteen rounds May 9.

DIP BRINGS BUYING ORDERS

Bull Leaders Are Purchasers of Wheat and Shorts Cover.

CORN PRICES IN BIG UPTURN.

Better Cash Business Helps Coarse Grains; Product Is Weaker.

While net advances for the day were not large in wheat, the tone of the market at the end of the session yesterday was decidedly strong, and closing quotations registered substantial gains from the low points. Opening slightly higher all around on the firm cables and the bullish crop reports from the southwest, the market was called on to take a deluge of profit taking sales, as well as local short selling. This broke the market off more than 1c a bu to below the price of downs. On the break commission houses picked up the wheat, and when the shorts tried to get back their wheat they found the market tight, with sharp advances the net result of the covering. Bartlett-Patten led the buying on the upturn, and Armour was credited with buying wheat on the downturn, although a seller early. Closing figures were ⅛@½c up.

Early Reaction Is Natural.

After a three day advance of about 4c it was natural to expect profit taking, and, moreover, the bulls had bought freely on Saturday in an effort to anticipate the alleged frost damage. These buyers, as a rule, were forced out of their wheat at the start and had difficulty in getting it back. Selling early was put down also to Lichtstern, Harris-Winthrop, Knight-McDougal, Barrell, Kidston, Hulburd-Warren-Chandler, Updike, and Friedman. The big local professionals were bearish and inclined to put out the short lines taken in last week. The renewed pressure of this kind was a factor in the early break, but the short covering later was even more of a factor in the late recover. A sharp rally in corn helped to strengthen the wheat market. Just before the close Updike and Armour sold September, while Bartlett-Patten bought it all the way up.

Winter Wheat Outlook Poor.

Bulls are relying almost entirely on the condition of the winter wheat crop. Advices from Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska, and Kansas were, to say the least, not encouraging, but the bears are taking into account the enormous increase in the acreage which will make up for heavy losses. Not only that but the excellent promise of the northwestern and Canadian crop is serving to keep the public from becoming over anxious on the long side. Drought in the west and southwest promises to become the big factor in the absence of rains in the next few days. Large areas have had little moisture in nearly two months.

Foreign news was bearish despite the firmer Liverpool market, which closed ⅜@¾d higher. World's shipments were 10,832,000 bu, or over 2,000,000 bu more than a year ago, and the general crop outlook abroad is excellent.

Patten House Covers Corn.

Enormous covering of May and July corn by Bartlett-Patten and other leading shorts absorbed all the surplus in the corn pit and near the close there was veritable dearth of corn, with shorts scrambling for the limited offerings. Bartlett-Patten, Armour, Shearson-Hammill, Logan-Bryan, Ware-Leland, and Updike were the principal buyers. Selling was scattered. Final prices were sharply higher all around with net gains for the day of ¾@1⅜c.

Aside from a reported better demand for cash corn there was little in the news that was radically bullish, and the advance was due more to pit conditions and covering by shorts than anything else.

Oats Recover Early Decline.

Oats suffered early from too much confidence on the part of the bulls. Opening quotations were sharply higher, but it was considered that the crop damage reports had been exaggerated and the offerings became liberal on the advance, causing a 1c break. Later the buying was renewed, led by Armour of the July, and closing figures were at ⅛@⅝c net advances for the day. Shipping sales were the largest in some time at 390,000 bu and the improvement in the general demand was much better.

Heavy Tone in Provisions.

The strength in grains helped to steady the provisions market late in the day, but the undertone was heavy and the close easy. The news in regard to the hog situation was bearish. Receipts here were counted finally at 17,000, and the estimate for today is 19,000. Western points had 38,700, against 39,700 a year ago. Country offerings were said to be light. The export demand for product is light, and shipments last week for export were less than half as large as for the same week a year ago. The domestic demand is fair.

SHARP BREAK ON THE MARKET

Operations by Speculators Bring Drop in New York.

HEAVY GOLD ENGAGEMENTS.

Foreign Exchange Rates Firm Despite Export Movement.

[NEW YORK TIMES FINANCIAL LEADER.]

NEW YORK, April 25.—[Special.]—Aggressive operations by speculators for a fall of prices brought about in the final fifteen minutes of trading on the exchange today the sharpest break in a number of weeks. Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Reading, and American Smelting fell 3 points or so from their morning quotations, while declines of 2 points or more were found in United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper, Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, St. Paul, and twenty equally prominent issues.

The market closed much unsettled, with prices practically at the lowest levels.

Bears Prove Sagacious.

The liquidation of weak speculative accounts and the uncovering of stop loss orders in all departments of the market attested the sagacity with which bearish operators gauged the disturbed sentiment of the financial community in the face of distressing reports on fruit and cotton crops from the west and south, the almost unprecedented magnitude of the day's gold engagements, and the uncertainty surrounding the action of the directors of the United States Steel corporation at tomorrow's meeting of the board for dividend purposes.

The most interesting fact in connection with the exceptionally heavy engagement of gold for export was the failure of the foreign exchange market to reflect the operations. At the close of the day the rates were, to all intents, as firm as at its opening.

May Be Crest of Movement.

Offsetting this, however, was the refusal of the Bank of England to promise a premium on coin shipments beyond the day, whereas heretofore assurance of premiums has been made on Monday to hold through the week, and it is possible this action marks the crest of the export movement.

In the money market there again was witnessed the curious indifference to the gold drain characteristic of it heretofore, although in some quarters a better demand for funds appeared to have been inspired by the extent of the day's engagements.

The cotton market responded promptly to news of freezing weather in various sections of the cotton belt, and before the advance had halted a rise of $2 or more a bale had been scored by several options.

Money on call steady, 2¾@3 per cent; ruling rate, 2¾ per cent; closing bid, 2¾ per cent; offered at 3 per cent. IN THE FOREIGN STOCK MARKET.

LONDON, April 25.—Money was in strong demand, and, with the stringency expected in connection with the monthly settlement, the income tax requirements, and the payment of treasury bills, discount rates therefore maintained the Bank of England's rate level. The continent and India shared in the £740,000 gold available.

The American department opened a fraction higher, but soon weakened on unfavorable crop news. A slight reaction was lost in the early afternoon on New York selling, but late support caused a recovery all around and the closing tone was steadier.

Legal Investment for Savings Banks and Trust Funds in New York State

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company (the old company) June 30, 1909, operated 8,048 miles, located for the greater part in the heart of the most rapidly growing section of the United States.

The Company, together with its predecessor, has paid uninterrupted dividends, averaging over six per cent for forty-eight years—since 1862.

The outstanding funded debt of the company at the close of the last fiscal year averaged only $27,608 per mile.

The First and Refunding Mortgage Four Per Cent Bonds are secured, in opinion of counsel (either directly or through deposit of securities), by a first lien on 1,148 miles of road, including the main line from St. Louis to Kansas City and terminal properties in St. Paul and Minneapolis, and by a general lien on 5,708 miles of road.

We recommend these bonds for investment

STOCK MARKET KEEPS DULL

Disturbed Business Feeling Reflected on the Exchanges.

"L" ROADS' SHARES ADVANCE

Talk of Merger Revives Interest in the Properties.

Price movements on the New York stock exchange yesterday afforded evidence of the general weakness of the market position. Barring the grain crop prospects there is nothing in the situation at this time to warrant any enthusiasm on the bull side. It is a regrettable condition that public sentiment finds itself in, but its existence cannot be denied. There is a disturbed feeling permeating general business and while good crops are fundamental at all times, there have been serious financial disturbances when crops were of the average yield and value.

The money market does not suggest anything serious, for with slackness in business will come easier money unless there should be a scare, which at this time does not seem warranted. The prospect of tariff agitation is the basis of the present unrest and that basis will not be removed for months to come.

No Western Union Increase.

Repeated rumors of an increase in Western Union's present dividend rate of 3 per cent to 4 per cent, or possibly 5 per cent, are understood to be based in part upon the improvement in earnings and the belief that the American telephone management is destined still further to strengthen the company's earning power. What appears to be an authoritative statement on the subject comes from Boston, as follows:

"At the present time, based upon old methods of accounting, Western Union is easily earning between 6 per cent and 7 per cent on its $100,000,000 capital stock. At the same time, the statement can be made that the purpose is to make no increase in the present dividend rate for the next five years, and perhaps not then.

"The reason for the determination not to pay more than 3 per cent is that the Western Union needs every dollar of its surplus earnings for the rehabilitation of its property. It will cost at least $3,000,000 a year for several years to come to build up the property."

Street's Annual Today.

Today will be held the annual meeting of Street's Western Stable Car line. The members of the board, together with the list of officers, have been agreed upon by representatives of the present interests in the company and those representing the new interests. There should be, therefore, harmony at today's gathering.

The stock of the company has declined from 25 to 18½ in the last ten days. The selling has been persistent and yesterday the total sales aggregated 690 shares. The price after falling to 18¼, recovered to 18½.

Advance in "L" Stocks.

Revival of plans for consolidating the elevated railroads led to fresh buying in Metropolitan and South Side shares. The latter advanced from 54½ to 58 on trading in 293 shares. Metropolitan preferred gained one point.

Steel Dividend Today.

Directors of the United States Steel corporation are scheduled to meet today to act on the dividend on the common stock. Advices from New York yesterday were to the effect that 1¼ per cent would be declared, thus putting the stock on a 5 per cent basis. If there is no raise either in the way of an extra dividend or an increase in the regular rate there will be much disappointment in Wall street.

Financial News Notes.

The Central Leather company has listed $[illegible]000 additional first lien, twenty year 5 per cent bonds of 1925 and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway company has listed $1,714,000 additional refunding 4 per cent bonds of 1934.

The International Harvester company has purchased the plant of the New York Air Brake company at Moscow, Russia, for $2,250,000.

IRON PLANT GETS NEW SITE

C. G. Stevens & Co. to Build at Monroe and Jefferson.

TWO FIRMS ARE ABSORBED.

Brick Trust Acquires Plants of Independent Concerns.

A transaction of special interest as illustrating the rapid advance of values in the west side manufacturing district has been closed in the sale by former United States Senator Thomas Kearns of Utah to Charles G. Stevens & Co., dealers in iron and steel, of the property at the northeast corner of Monroe and Jefferson streets. The consideration was $80,000. A six or seven story office and warehouse building to cost $125,000 will be erected on the new site. The concern is forced to move from its present location.

The Illinois Brick company, the trust, has just absorbed two more independent concerns, the Wisconsin Lime and Cement company, near Dolton, and the Harms Brick company, in the township of Northfield, paying a total of $230,000 for the two plants.

R. J. Busch sold to A. S. Terrill the forty-two apartment building on the northwest corner of Forty-eighth street and St. Lawrence avenue for $165,000.

WAYMAN PLEASED BY DECISION.

Says Ruling on Municipal Court Will Give More Judges to Criminal Bench.

State's Attorney Wayman is not displeased with the new Supreme court decision which denies to the Municipal court jurisdiction in petit larceny cases. He sees in it at least one result for which he has been working for months—the assignment of more judges to the Criminal court.

"The Municipal court now will have more time to try civil cases, thus lightening the work of the Circuit and Superior court judges, and giving them an opportunity to try cases in the Criminal court," he said.

Some attorneys expressed surprise at the state's attorney's attitude, as the throwing of all the petit larceny cases into the Criminal court is expected to play havoc with the record of convictions that Mr. Wayman's office has made since his incumbency.

LABOR NOTES BY WIRE.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y.—Edward Malin, a brother of President John H. Malin of the International Brotherhood of pulp, sulphite, and paper mill workers' union, has been arrested at Fort Edward charged with violating the injunction recently served upon the striking employés of the International Paper company.

LATROBE, Pa.—The state constabulary troopers and striking coal miners at the Bradenville mines of the Latrobe and Connellsville Coal and Coke company clashed and several miners and troopers were injured.

Telephone For a Telephone
Telephone Your Move Order
The Telephone Will Help You
in moving, and in getting straightened around after the new location is reached. When you are "so busy" that you cannot possibly get out, the telephone brings the butcher, the grocer, the druggist or the rug man, etc., to your door.
Our construction and installation forces are busy installing telephones everywhere.
Have You Notified Us
regarding your telephone needs at your new location? (Thirty days' notice requested). If not, you will avoid unnecessary delay by notifying our Contract Department at once, confirming in writing.
Perhaps you need additional extensions or terminal telephone facilities at your new location. Now is a good time to have them installed.

Fine Paradise Feather Ospreys in Natural, Black and White—$8.75.

Each osprey is made up of thirty-five long sweeping pieces and is finished at the base with a full pad of brilliant shorter feathers. All are unusually fine—full, and perfect in every respect. The present popularity of these handsome feathers for evening and dress wear makes this offering all the more unusual, and, as the quantity is limited and no more obtainable at this price, selection should not be delayed. Special, $8.75.

Fifth Floor.

Untrimmed Hats—Finest Quality Milan Straw: A Notable Special Sale.

Four hundred of these genuine Milan Braid Hats in a large variety of the desirable shapes of the season have been made additionally attractive in the savings afforded in the following prices. These Hats may be had in Natural or Sunburnt Straw color or Black. Large shapes, $8.75; medium shapes $7.50; small shapes, $6.75.

Fifth Floor.

Foulards: The Season's Special Favorite in Silks

The increasing demand for these popular Silks for summer dresses has found this Section never so well prepared with extensive varieties of printed Allover and Bordered Foulards in a complete line of coloring and a wide range of designs—24 inch, 85c and $1.00 a yard; 36 to 44 inch, $1.25 to $4.50 a yard.

We especially call attention to the excellent values now being offered in 36 to 44 inch Foulards—both in Allover and Bordered designs, specially priced at $1.25 and $1.50 a yd.

Second Floor.

Sale of Embroideries in Sample Strips; Classed as Seconds.

These sales have become widely known through the great economies they afford. Savings of more than one-third are possible in seconds that are scarcely distinguishable from the first quality lines. The present collection is very extensive in qualities, widths and patterns. Cambrics, Nainsooks and Swisses are included, in Edges, Insertions and Plain and Fancy Beadings. They are in about 4½-yard strips, and are priced in this sale at 10c to 50c a yard.

First Floor.

Fine Colored Dress Goods, Broken Lines Reduced—Yd., $1.

These clearance sales are notably the result of this season's successful selling The requirements of fashion have been very diversified—consequently the accumulations of broken assortments are unusually large. Included are light, medium and heavy weight suitings, also voiles and other light weight wool and silk and wool materials, all reduced to $1.00 yard.

Second Floor.

Clearance Values in Robe Patterns and Real Crochet Coats.

An opportunity that very many women will immediately appreciate for the purchase of these handsome garments is offered in special prices and reductions going into effect this morning in the Robe section. The reductions apply to the Coats—beautiful designs in real crochet which have been marked one-third below former prices.

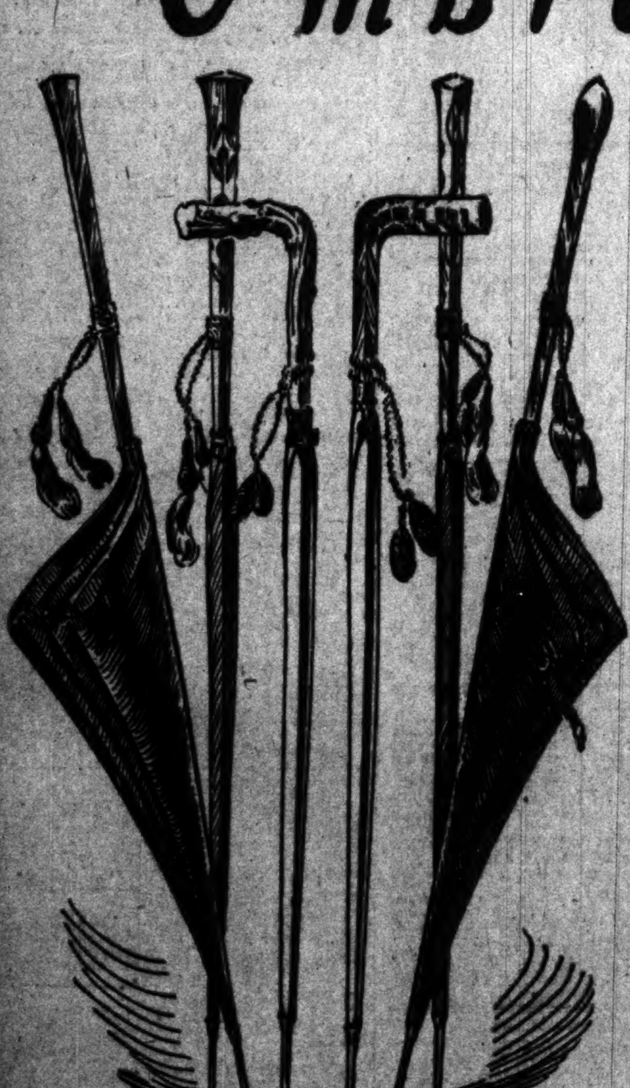

Second Floor.

In Hand-Embroidered Linen Robes an attractive summer gown may be had at an extremely low price—$7.50, $8.50, $9.50, $12.50 and $14.50.

Batiste Robes—a collection of unusual merit from a Swiss manufacturer is marked at prices equally interesting—$10.50, $12.00 and $13.50.

CARSON PIRIE SCOTT & Co

A Sale of 2,000 All-Silk Umbrellas

The saving is one-third, in some instances more.

The outcome of a fortunate purchase, in which we secured 2,000 fine all silk umbrellas made from wide tape edge silk taffetas.

The high quality of these umbrellas and the extremely low price which we are able to quote through reason of favorable purchasing combine in making this offering decidedly unusual.

Women's Umbrellas—These come in black, navy, green and wine—and are extremely attractive with gilt ferrules, tips and tie buttons. They are mounted on plain and hand carved mission wood handles and finished with silk cases and handsome military tassels $2.45

Men's Umbrellas—Made on eight rib steel frames, 28 inch size with fine imported Scotch furze and mission wood handles—and finished with silk cases and tassels $2.45
